Jacee Currin won Girls All-Around after placing second in pole bending and goat tying, fifth in team roping (header) and eighth in girls' cutting. She will compete at nationals in goat tying and pole bending.

Jaiden Mahoney of Heppner also made a place for herself at the national event, placing third in barrel racing at the state finals to compete in the national finals in Wyoming next month.

HHS 2017 graduate Kevin Murray, in his first year competing in OHSRA shooting events, also earned a shot at nationals after placing second in rifle shooting and fourth in trap shooting.

Finally, OHSRA Queen Ivy Sandford received the NHSRA Spirit Buckle Award. Sandford was chosen for the honor by the association directors for her "positive attitude and determination in and out of the arena... as someone who always stepped up to help or fill in on a job when our adult directors needed student help."

to competing for more than $200,000 in prizes, NHSFR contestants will also be competing for more than $350,000 in college scholarships and the chance to be named an NHSFR World Champion. To earn this title, contestants must finish in the top 20—based on their combined times/scores in the first two rounds—to advance to Saturday evening's final round. World champions will then be determined based on their three-round combined times/scores.

Along with the rodeo competition and the chance to meet contestants from around the world, NHSFR contestants have the opportunity to take part in shooting sports, volleyball, contestant dances, family-oriented activities, church services sponsored by the Fellowship of Christian Cowboys, and shopping at the NHSFR tradeshow.

Again, this year, the Saturday championship performance will be televised nationally as a part of the Cinch Highschool Rodeo Tour telecast series on

RFD-TV. Live broadcasts of each NHSFR performance will also air online at NHSRATV.com. Performance times are 7 p.m. on July 16, and 9 a.m. and

BORN TWICE

What did Jesus mean when He said, "You must be born again"? (John 3:7). Nicodemus, the religious leader whom Jesus was speaking, asked if that meant becoming a baby a second time (v.4). Jesus explained that He was talking about spiritual rebirth (vv.5-8).

We need to be reborn because we are spiritually dead. Our sin has separated us from a life-giving relationship with God. We all have sinned by violating His perfect moral standards (Romans 3:23), and so we all are guilty and deserving of God's judgment (John 3:18-21).

What every person needs is the forgiveness and eternal life that Jesus made possible through His sinless life, His sacrificial death on the cross, and His resurrection. Spiritual rebirth occurs when a person exercises genuine trust in Christ as Savior and Lord (vv.14-18). At that point a believer experiences God's forgiveness and a radical transformation at the very core of his being (2 Corinthians 5:17).

Christianity was never intended to be merely a "fire escape" from hell. Being born again is the beginning of a whole new life. We are to grow up into mature men and women of faith. This process is often difficult, costly, and unrewarding by the world's standards.

Above all else, we must realize that it's impossible to please God without a life-changing personal encounter with Christ. This involves recognizing that we need a savior, accepting the gift of salvation (Ephesians 2:8-9), and trusting in Jesus as our only hope of being right with God now and living with Him forever (Romans 6:2-3).

Have you been born twice?
