HUGE SHOUT OUT TO.....BETH DICKENSON...Last week she took 4 brave and excited Heppner FFA students to a Leadership Camp in Washington D.C. The opportunity of a lifetime! In assuring these students got to their destination she assisted in recruiting work for them to raise money so they might reach their goal. These students worked hard for their right to attend such an event and without Beth and her willingness, time and effort to instruct and lead our students/children with whom our future resides a lesson in life of how to get there and take care of their community members at the same time. She should be thanked by not just us parents for the work she does and the things she teaches our children as well as the opportunities she provides our kids (WLC FFA) but from our community as well for the work she teaches our kids to do within our little town of Heppner it all helps us to create a true "community."
 Thank you BETH
