CARD OF THANKS

My brother, Bill, and I have been in awe of all the outpouring gestures of support since my illness began the middle of June. The prayers, our medical staff, home health and therapy have been phenomenal! The successful fund-raisers, the donations, ride to the hospital, food, the phone calls, the visits, loaning of medical equipment, grass mowing and watering and picking up mail have been so appreciated.

So many local businesses and people have "jumped in to help on a moment's notice" ...and the list continues. I hope to get individual thank you notes sent to all of you as soon as possible.

I have another surgery in the future and more therapy, but my plan is to get better and be able to get back to work; I want to give back to our communities that have embraced us with their care. These are the reasons I live and work here.

Many thanks to all of you!
