CARD OF THANKS

Morrow County Extension and 4-H would like to thank all members, leaders, families, volunteers, businesses, buyers and fair goers that participated in, helped with, and came to the Morrow County Fair this year. It's a busy week, and it could not happen without the involvement of so many who work hard, and come together to make our county fair such a success. We truly can't thank all of you enough!
 Sincerely,
 Morrow County Extension Office

at the Heppner Hospital for the exceptional care Leon received. Also Jay Keithley for retrieving Leon's motorcycle plus the ambulance crew who took charge of transporting Leon to the Hospital. Chad and Amy from Portland for stopping at the accident scene and initially transporting Leon and his gear to the point the ambulance arrived. We are also grateful for their assistance of Sheriff Deputies Carter and Bose. Heppner certainly is a wonderful place with some exceptional citizens to whom we are very grateful.
 Sincerely,
 Alan Myers

Late on the morning of August 22nd my friend Leon and I were returning to Issaquah Washington riding our motorcycles taking in the beauty of the scenery along Willow Creek Rd East of Heppner. Unfortunately, my friend ran into some gravel on a hard left turn which resulted in a broken shoulder and several broken or cracked ribs and of course a badly damaged motorcycle. The amazing thing is by the end of the day my friend had been patched up as much as possible, his motorcycle retrieved and was on his way home. We owe all of this to the wonderful citizens in this remarkable town and our good friend Matt who drove round trip from Issaquah to pick up Leon and his motorcycle. We would like to especially thank Dr Hambleton, Mindy, Ryan and Terri
