

HHS class of '67 holds reunion

The Heppner High School class of 1967 held their 50th class reunion in Heppner over homecoming weekend, Sept. 22 - 24. Twenty-four classmates gathered Friday night, Sept. 22 to watch the Mustangs play Toledo in the homecoming game. A spokesperson indicated they were happy with the victory and enjoyed hearing the school fight song played many times over the evening. Jim Doherty, '67 football captain, pinned homecoming corsages on the ladies attending the game.

Saturday morning, several classmates and spouses enjoyed a class walk and talk around town. Next was a tour of Heppner High School. All who went said the school looked great. Then it was on to Hager Park for some bingo, more fun and visiting. Saturday evening, the class had a nice dinner served by Patti Pappas at the Elks Club. During the class meeting they heard speeches from Rick Johnston and Martha Peck Andrews. The Henchmen made a cameo appearance and played a few songs. John Cox and Jan Hager Evans gave toasts to the class and Alma Mater followed by the HHS fight song. The class voted to have another reunion in five years. Dennis and Peggy Snyder O'Donnell plan to host a 70th birthday party at their home in 2019 for the class.

Sunday morning, several classmates and spouses gathered as guests of Marty Boyajian Lieuallen and husband, Jim, for a sendoff before heading home. This was the best reunion ever was quoted by many attendees. "We couldn't have done it without any of you. Thanks to you, one and all", said class secretary, Roger Leonnig.
