The Heppner Mustang volleyball team had a very busy and successful week of matches. The Mustangs (15-7, 5-1) won two tough conference matches and then played two highly ranked teams in the state over the weekend.

The Mustangs traveled to Culver to take on the number one ranked team in the state. They put together some of their best volleyball of the season and knocked off the top-ranked team 3-2.

The first set saw Culver come out fast and win by the score of 25-12. The Mustangs picked it up after the long bus ride and stormed back to win the next two sets 25-13, 28-26. The Bulldogs then stormed back to win the third 25-16 and force a fifth and deciding set. Heppner was able to grind out an 18-16 win in the set to clinch the match. Jacee Currin led the team with ten kills. She also had 12 digs and ten assists. Morgan Correa contributed nine kills and 21 digs while Sydney Wilson had a team-best of 27 digs. Sophie Grant added 12 assists in the match.

Heppner then traveled to Pilot Rock for another important conference matchup. Again, the Mustangs started slow and lost the first set to the Rockets, 25-8. Heppner then pulled it together and won the next three sets and the match by the scores of 25-21, 25-14 and 25-15. It was a total team effort to be able to get the win on this night. After the quick defeat in the first set, everyone picked it up and played well in all phases of the game. It was an important victory as it kept the Mustangs tied with Culver for first place in the conference.

Over the weekend the Mustangs faced two other highly ranked teams in the state; the Kennedy Trojans are the third ranked team in the state and the St. Paul Buckaroos are ranked fourth. The teams all met and played at Sherman County High School.

Heppner couldn't get anything going in the early morning match with St. Paul and lost 25-22, 25-18, 25-16. They then played the last match of the day against Kennedy and won the first set 25-20. Heppner lost the final three sets and the match by scores of 25-23, 25-17, 25-18. It was certainly a great test for the Mustangs against really good teams from the other side of the state.

The Mustangs have two more conference matches left to play. They host the Weston-McEwen Tigers on Thursday, Oct. 12 and then finish conference play at the Stanfield Tigers on Tuesday, Oct. 17.
