CARD OF THANKS

In a recent Rurallite magazine article, work I have been doing in cemeteries was featured. I would like to add the following: Many thanks to the people helping me over the years and inspiring the drive to do the things I have. To Susan French, my best friend; John Luciani and Jay Coil are like brothers to me; Butch Laughlin, Kit George, and Tom Wolff - watching them doing similar volunteer work. I also want to thank Terri Denton with her computer skills. She did all the research for me on the history of the B24J bomber that went down on Matlock mountain. It's everyone's positive attitude that keeps me going.
God Bless,
Matthew Greenup
