exceptional musical performances. The group consists of talented Navy musicians, providing a high-energy performance for audiences of all ages and walks of life.

The brass band is comprised of a trumpet, two trombones, a tenor saxophone, a drum set, and a baritone saxophone playing jazz parts. The group's versatility shines with a diverse repertoire including jazz, New Orleans standards, funk and blues, and an assortment of popular cover songs arranged for this lively instrumentation.

Neighborhood Center to hold canned food drive

The Neighborhood Center will be holding a canned food drive on Monday, Nov. 6. Residents in Heppner and Lexington are asked to place canned food donations on their porch by 5:30 p.m. with their porch light on. Local high school students will pick up the donations.

Residents are asked to drop off donations to the Neighborhood Center at 441 N. Main St., Heppner, between 9:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Monday through Friday if they are unable to participate on Nov. 6 or if their home gets missed. Call 541-676-5024 for additional information.

Shared Ministry to host All Saints Sunday

The Shared Ministry of Hope Lutheran Church and All Saints Episcopal Church will celebrate All Saints Sunday at the Episcopal Church on Nov. 5 beginning at 10 a.m. Loved ones who have died will be remembered by name in prayer and with the lighting of candles.

This Sunday will mark the beginning of an experiment by the Shared Ministry to rotate use of the Lutheran and Episcopal buildings on a seasonal basis, rather than weekly. The first rotation will take place in the Episcopal Church. The order of service will continue to alternate weekly between Lutheran and Episcopal forms of worship with the first and third Sundays of the month (except for All Saints Sunday) with the Evangelical Lutheran Worship hymnal. The second and fourth Sundays of the month will be with the Book of Common Prayer. Everyone is welcome. More information about Shared Ministry activities is available by calling the church office at 541-676-9970.
