Mustangs start new year with wins

The Heppner Mustang boys' basketball team started the new year out right with two impressive wins. The Mustangs traveled to Union and beat the Bobcats 67-48 and then defeated the Elgin Huskies at home by the score of 61-39.

At Union, the hot shooting Bobcats led at the end of the first quarter 14-10. Heppner then outscored Union 19-12 in the second to take a 29-26 lead into halftime.

The Mustangs had a great third quarter and took control of the game. They scored 23 points and held the Bobcats to just 10 and took a commanding 52-36 lead into the fourth quarter. The Mustangs also won the last quarter 15-12 and that led to the overall victory by the score of 67-48.

Trent Smith had the hot shooting hand and led the team in scoring with 18. He also had two assists, two steals and a rebound. Tyler Carter continued his fine all-around play with 11 points, seven rebounds and four steals. Kevin Smith came back from injury and scored nine points and had two rebounds in his first outing of the season. With six points each were Wyatt Steagall and Alex Lindsay. Steagall also had six rebounds, two steals and one assist while Lindsay contributed two rebounds. Hunter Nichols had four points, four assists, one rebound and a steal in the game. Beau Wolters scored four points and Logan Burright was next with three.

Burright also had three rebounds and a steal for the Mustangs. With two points each were Dakota and Derek Howard. Dakota also registered three rebounds, one assist and a steal while Derek had one rebound. Justin McAninch scored two points, had six rebounds and two blocked shots in the game. Coby Dougherty and Gibson Mc-

Curry did not score, but Dougherty had a steal and a block while McCurry had a rebound for the team.

Heppner then hosted the highly ranked Elgin Huskies. The Mustangs jumped out quickly and took the lead 18-10 after one quarter. Another 18 point quarter saw the Mustangs lead the game 36-23 at halftime. The Mustangs then came out with a plan to play better defense in the second half. The extra effort paid off as they held the Huskies to single digits in each of the last two quarters. Heppner outscored Elgin 25-16 in the second half and got the win by the score of 61-39.

Kevin Smith had a big night in his home debut. He scored 18 points, had seven rebounds and blocked three shots. Lindsay and Trent Smith were next with 11 points each. Lindsay also recorded four rebounds and two steals. Smith also had a steal for the team. Carter scored 10 points, had five rebounds and a steal. Wolters had three points and a steal while playing some good defense on the Huskies best shooter. Steagall had two points, five rebounds and a steal while battling foul trouble all night long. Nichols and Dakota Howard each scored two points in the game. Nichols also contributed two assists, three steals and he and Dakota each also had a rebound for the Mustangs. McAninch had two points, one rebound and two blocked shots while Dougherty and McCurry both blocked a shot in the game.

This week the Mustangs start conference play with two home games. On Friday they host the Stanfield Tigers and then on Saturday the Weston-McEwen Tigerscots will come to town.

JV basketball boasts 8-1 record

At the halfway point in their season, the Heppner Mustang Junior Varsity boys' basketball team has an impressive 8-1 record. The JV team starts their conference schedule this weekend as they host the Stanfield Tigers and the Weston-McEwen Tigerscots.

Their only loss of the year came in their very first game of the season at the Western Mennonite tournament. They lost to the Chemawa Braves 33-28. Since then they've been on a roll and have outscored their opponents 467-232.

They've won games over Pacific 36-12, McLoughlin 51-29, Irrigon 77-57, Grant Union 59-36, Umatilla 54-48, Echo 55-14, Union 76-21 and Elgin 59-15.

The team uses a punishing inside game to go along with some good 3-point shooting to score most of their points. A mixture of strong man-to-man and zone defenses keeps their opponents from scoring many points.

Members of the JV team are Reno Ferguson, Mason Lehman, Keegan Gibbs, Dakota Howard, Logan Burright, Kannon Wilkins, Cason Mitchell, Jayden Wilson, Kellen Grant, Gavin Hanna Robinson and Derek Howard.

A balanced scoring attack is led by Derek Howard who averages nine points per game. Dakota Howard, Ferguson and Lehman all average seven points for the team. Wilson goes for six points a game and Wilkins averages five. Mitchell and Grant are scoring four points a game at the midway point. Gibbs and Hanna Robinson haven't looked to be big scorers so far this season. Gibbs is the floor general who looks to pass the ball to his teammates. Hanna Robinson is the defensive stopper who gets the assignment of guarding the other team's best player. Burright just joined the JV team last weekend and exploded for 17 points in his first game at Union.

It is a very talented group of coachable young men who certainly make the future of the Mustang basketball program look very bright.
