Gould's name was inadvertently left off the fall term list published previously. The editor apologizes for the error.

Obituaries

Clarence M. "Cub" Bare

Clarence M. "Cub" Bare, 85, passed away on Jan. 8 at Mid-Columbia Medical Center in The Dalles due to complications of diabetes. Cub was born on Dec. 20, 1932 in Fossil, OR to Clarence M. and Veva (Edwards) Bare. Services will be held at a later date.

Cub first attended school in Fossil then moved to Wamic after his dad died and later to Maupin, where he lived with relatives and friends while working his way through school. He graduated from Wasco County Union High School in 1951, where he was a standout athlete and made many lifelong friends. After high school Cub joined the Navy, serving from 1952-1956. He then took advantage of the G.I. Bill to earn a degree in education from Eastern Oregon College. While attending EOU, he was a member of the 1956 football team which was later inducted into the EOU Hall of Fame Class of 2006. He met Mary L. Swiger of Baker and they married on Jan. 18, 1958 in LaGrande. They moved around eastern Oregon and eventually settled in Condon where they raised their three children.

Cub had several different careers throughout his life, all of which he was proud of. He did odd jobs on farms, a sawmill and restaurants when he was young, often washing dishes or chopping wood for a meal. After college he taught grade school in Heppner and Condon, then decided he would rather be outdoors and spent many years working on and managing farms. He and his son, Tom, also started the T & D Storage business, which he managed until his death. Cub was most proud of his family. He was frequently seen (and heard) sitting in the front row of his children's and grandchildren's events, traveling many miles across the northwest to support them. He enjoyed family and school reunions and could spend hours sharing stories and reminiscing. He hosted the Edwards family reunion in Condon this past September and got to share more of his family's history and the family homestead near Fossil with his immediate family and several of his nieces. Cub loved to fix things, rarely giving up on any piece of equipment and shared many "how-tos" with his children and grandchildren. He was a fiercely independent and hard-working individual who did anything he could to support his family.

Cub was preceded in death by his half-sisters,

Lucille, Carolyn, and Maxine "Sunny."

Survivors include his wife, Mary, of Condon; children, Tom (and Becky) Bare of Goldendale, Shelly Mitchell of Vancouver, WA and Teresa (and Ken) Humphrey of Condon; grandchildren, Rachel (and Austin) Allen, Shane (and Billi) Bare, Nolin Bare, David Mitchell (and Robin Wolcott), Lilley (and Andrew) Perkins, Katee Humphrey (and Shane Frederick) and Teren Humphrey; great-grandchildren, Brynley and Jackson Allen, Ryland Bare, and Max Perkins and many nieces and nephews.

Memorial donations may be made to the South Gilliam County Ambulance Service, the Condon Senior Meal Site or a charity of your choice. Sweeney Mortuary is in charge of arrangements.

Morrow County budget committee seeks volunteer

Morrow County is looking for a volunteer to serve on the Morrow County budget committee. Budget committee members serve three-year terms, with this appointment to end June 30, 2020.

The budget committee is responsible for reviewing, making recommendations, and approving the annual budget for the county. The committee consists of the three members of the Board of Commissioners and three electors who are appointed by the Board of Commissioners. Budget committee meetings are normally held in mid-April of each year.

Morrow County residents interested in serving on the budget committee should submit a letter of interest to the Morrow County Finance Department, P.O. Box 788, Heppner, OR 97836. The letter must be received by Monday, Feb. 5, 2018. For additional information contact Kate Knop, Finance Director at 541-676-5615.

Vegetarian cooking class to be held

A three-day vegetarian cooking class will be held Feb. 5, 6 and 7 from 7-8 p.m. at the Heppner Seventh-Day Adventist Church that will cover recipes for each of the basic meal times.

The class is geared toward learning what a vegetarian eats, what to make for a meatless meal and learning to eat healthier. Meals for breakfast, lunch and dinner will be demonstrated along with samples of each meal prepared. Recipes will also be available.

The class is free, but participants are asked to RSVP to Erik at 541-922-8697.

Community lunch menu

St. Patrick's Parish volunteers will serve lunch on Wednesday, Jan. 31, at St. Patrick's Senior Center. Lunch will be Parmesan crusted fish, rice pilaf, mixed vegetables, sliced tomatoes, hot rolls and apple cobbler for dessert.

Milk is served at each meal. Suggested donation is $3.50 per meal. Menu is subject to change.
