The Critters With Attitude 4-H Club will be hosting a bake sale and selling raffle tickets in front of the Heppner Elks Lodge from 9 a.m. until noon on Saturday, Mar. 17.

Baskets to be raffled include a children's activity basket, a BBQ basket, a coffee basket, a facial basket and a wine basket. Raffle tickets are $1 each or six for $5.

Last year's bake sale reached its goal to purchase shears. This year the club hopes to raise enough money to purchase a sheep stand or a new blower. The club stated that they would like to thank everyone that helped them last year and they hope to see you again this year.

Eastern Oregon Physical Therapy opens in Boardman

Eastern Oregon Physical Therapy (EOPT) is excited to announce an expansion of its service base of clinics to include a new facility in Boardman. EOPT has provided physical therapy services to eastern Oregon for over 15 years, with locations in Hermiston, Heppner and Pendleton. EOPT has worked with the Morrow County Health District to expand into this new location and bring additional services to the area.

Landan Morgan, DPT

is the newest physical therapist team member of the four EOPT locations. Morgan and his family relocated to the area this past winter after he graduated from Rocky Mountain University of Health Professions in Provo, UT. Morgan says he is excited about the opportunity to work within the community and support the growing and available medical services in Boardman.

EOPT will be providing out-patient services that include post-op rehab, industrial injury, orthopedic, sports medicine and injury prevention. Morgan will also look to expand the services provided through the Morrow County Health District's home health program with his presence and proximity to the community.

EOPT accepts most insurance plans and is open five days a week. The office is located at 101 SW Kinkade. To schedule an appointment, please call the office at 541-481-2533.

Community lunch menu

Nazarene, Christian and Seventh Day Adventist volunteers will serve lunch on Wednesday, Mar. 21 at St. Patrick's Senior Center. Lunch will be chicken cordon bleu, scalloped potatoes, green beans, green salad, hot rolls and tiramisu for dessert.

Milk is served at each meal. Suggested donation is $3.50 per meal. Menu is subject to change.

Roice Fulleton, 100, who lives at Willow Creek Terrace, received a hand-quilted quilt last week that was made by a group of ladies in Hermiston. The group makes quilts and presents them to veterans who have retired. One of the ladies, Stephanie Ray, remembered that Fulleton was a veteran and also a cowboy, so they created a cowboy quilt specifically for him. The quilt was pieced by Jean Stahlberg and quilted by Barbara Furlong.
