St. Pat's has come and gone. The events were successful and even with it being cold, we all enjoyed it.

It's difficult for many to understand the work that goes into these four days. Planning begins almost immediately after each St. Pat's year. Meetings begin in February and volunteers accept their roles and start to work.

None of this would be done without the tireless hours that Sheryll Bates puts in. I Marvel on her energy and skill she has. Hats off to Sheryll, a job well done.
