CARD OF THANKS

I would like to say thank you to all the family, friends, co-workers and businesses in our community for being so loving and giving during my medical leave from work. A very special thank you to my sweet, caring and loving boyfriend, Rick, who has been right by my side through all of the rough times, helping me with everything, every day, through my hip replacement. What a trooper! Love you babe. A special thank you to Teresa Jones who opened a Go Fund Me account to try and help with some of my medical costs. You're my hero and I can't thank you and your sis, Liz Jones, for all you did to get the word out, and, wow, did you get the word out. The outpouring of love, with visits, cards, food, rides to the doctor appointments and PT (that group of girls at Pioneer Memorial Physical Therapy is awesome), and even a little babysitting after surgery, I would like to thank everyone who came and supported the benefit dinner/auction for Michael. It's hard to come up with the without having some help with my mail route. Special thanks to Mary Haguewood who started this by asking how she could help. Then, Ruth Eadler came out of the woodwork and said she would help out. At the mailboxes at Blakes Ranch I was talking to Darlene Klock who lives up there and, she said, "Well Shari, if I can help I would do what I could." And then all of a sudden, I had a team together. A team is what they are too. They trained with me until surgery and then helped each other train together to get it down. I can't thank them enough for making this even possible. I love living in a place where people share and care about each other. Remember to give or pay it forward next time you have the chance because next time it could be you on the receiving end. Love you all and thanks, Shari Ober correct words to say other than this is overwhelming. So many people gave so much of their time, money and effort to put this on that I'm hesitant to mention names for fear that I will leave someone out. It does show how blessed we are to live in the little town of Heppner and how giving and caring people are. Thank you everyone and God bless each and everyone of you !!

Sincerely,
Jim Angell

HELP WANTED
