Students invited to compete in essay contest

Secretary of State Dennis Richardson invites all elementary and middle school-aged children to compete in the 2019-2020 Oregon Blue Book essay contest.

The 2019-2020 Blue Book theme is "Celebrating Oregon's Local Festivals." Essays should answer the following question: What is your favorite local community celebration, festival, carnival, fiesta or fair and why? Contestants are also encouraged to illustrate their essays with drawings.

The Oregon Blue Book, published biennially since 1911, is the official state almanac. The Blue Book contains information, listings, and descriptions of Oregon state government, educational institutions, media information, cultural and arts organizations and miscellaneous points of interest to Oregonians and visitors alike. It also includes Oregon fun facts, maps and state and election history.

"The Oregon Blue Book has been a state icon for over 100 years," said Secretary of State Dennis Richardson. "The Blue Book is filled with great information on over 2,000 areas of interest that make up Oregon. It covers all things Oregon from absentee voting to aviation, banking to butterflies, wages to wind-surfing and much more. It's just a great resource and a fun read with breathtaking photos of Oregon."

The winning essays and drawings will be printed in the Blue Book and the authors and artists will be invited to the capitol for the official Blue Book release party and celebration in early 2019.

The deadline for submitting entries is October 16, 2018. Submissions must include the student's name, grade, teacher's name, school name and address and be mailed, not emailed, to:

Mary Beth Herkert, State Archivist
Oregon State Archives
800 Summer St. NE
Salem, OR 97310

Contestants can find contest information and details by visiting the Blue Book website. If there are additional questions, contact the Blue Book editor at 503-378-5199 or send an email to bluebook.changes@oregon.gov.
