CARD OF THANKS

We want to acknowledge and thank the following people:
Pat and Trish Sweeney for your tender loving care and patience while meeting our needs for Betty's memorial service; Dick Temple, for your kind words and thought provoking Homily; Eric Jepsen, for the peaceful music you played throughout the service; Merry Chandler (Country Rose), for the gorgeous flowers and colorful balloons the grandchildren sent heavenward; The Altar Society, for the beautifully set tables and delicious luncheon you provided following the service; and Sid Kennedy, for making the rustic ladders to display Betty's quilts upon.
We also want to thank all of Betty's friends and neighbors who prepared the wonderful meal for our family, the night before her service. And to everyone who sent prayers, flowers, cards, and memorial contributions on Betty's behalf, what a blessing your kind deeds were for our family during a difficult time.
A special thanks to Lorene Montgomery for feeding

Squeak and Sylvester during Betty's absence from her home. Your help was comforting to Betty and continues to be appreciated by us. Finally, we are grateful to Cara Christman for spending many nights with Betty while she was in the hospital and Hospice Home. Your presence was comforting to Betty and appreciated by us more than you will ever know.
Thanks again! All of you brought great comfort to our family and made Betty's Memorial Service more special. She would have been pleased.
Sincerely,
Joan and Scott McDaniel & family (Heppner)
Jean and Marv West & family (Boise, ID)
Kelly and Carl Christman & family (Ione) 5-16-1c
