Music in the park begins in Heppner

Porter and the Pale Ales to perform June 10.

Heppner's Music in the Park series begins Sunday, June 10 from 5 to 7 p.m. at the Heppner City Park on Main Street. Music will be provided by Porter and the Pale Ales, a group of talented musicians who offer a sound reminiscent of the 30s through the 60s with gentle, thoughtful, yet zesty tunes (think George Gershwin meets the early Beatles). In the event of rain, the concert will be moved to the grade school gym. Funding for this event is provided by the Morrow County Unified Recreation District and facilitated by Hopeful Saints Ministry as a service to the community. Pulled pork sandwiches and more will be available by donation to raise funds for Hopeful Saints Ministry's well-building projects through Living Water International.

Water district to assess creek

The directors of the Heppner Water Control District will be walking along Willow Creek through Heppner on Thursday, June 7 beginning at 11 a.m. The purpose is to assess the condition and safety of the riparian area. Downed trees may create a dam and cause property damage. The board would like to remind property owners along the creek that Oregon state law prohibits the deposit of trash, rubbish, debris or litter on land within 100 yards of any of the waters of the state according to ORS 468B.005.

Willow Creek Water Park

Opens June 9th - 1 pm - midnight.

Regular hours:
1 pm to 8 pm Monday through Saturday
Sunday 1 pm to 5 pm.

Daily admission:
$4 for adults, $3 students, $2 children
Family Pass: $140 Single pass: $75
Swim lessons Levels 1 through 6 start July 9 and July 30 and run for two weeks.

Business enhancement grant funds available

Willow Creek Valley Economic Development Group (WCVEDG) has funds available to be used for businesses located and operating in south Morrow County communities to use for outside/exterior improvements only.

The business enhancement grant requires the business to have a commitment of at least 50 percent of the funds necessary for the improvements, which may include in-kind or cash contributions from local and regional sources, prior to applying.

Grant requests will be accepted from Friday, June 8 through Friday, July 6. The review and decision of grants awarded will be decided by the WCVEDG board.

A grant application form and information sheet is available by contacting Sheryll Bates at 541-676-5536 or emailing heppnerchamber@centurytel.net. Forms are also available at Heppner, Lexington and Lone city hall offices.

Completed grant applications must be emailed, mailed, hand delivered or faxed to the Chamber office no later than Friday, July 6 to be eligible for consideration.

Local students to graduate from OSU

Oregon State University will hold its 149th commencement on Saturday, June 16, beginning at 10:30 a.m. in Reser Stadium. OSU is one of the few large universities in the nation to hand out students' actual diplomas during the commencement ceremony.

Heppner students graduating at the ceremony are Maggie K. Collins, Master of Science, Agricultural Education and Stephen G. Thompson, Bachelor of Science, Agricultural Business Management.

Graduating from Lone is Bailey D. Haguwood, Bachelor of Science, Business Administration.

The commencement speaker is Harley Jessup, an Oregon State University alumnus and renowned animation production designer who has won an Academy award and an Emmy award for visual effects. Jessup also will receive an honorary doctorate from the university.

Commencement is free and open to the public and no tickets are necessary. More information about OSU's graduation is available online at: <http://oregonstate.edu/events/commencement/>.

Heppner library announces new books for May

The Oregon Trail Library District Heppner Branch has announced the following new books for May 2018:

Fiction: Bad Men and Wicked Women - Eric Jerome Dickey, Texas Flat - Ray Hogan, The Third Victim - Phillip Margolin.

Non-Fiction: I'll be Gone in the Dark - Michelle McNamara, The Mythology Book.

Forest landowners invited to meeting

Forest landowners in Umatilla and Morrow counties are invited to attend an informational meeting with Oregon Department of Forestry (ODF) and Oregon Small Woodlands Association (OSWA) on Saturday, June 16 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Oregon Department of Forestry office in Pendleton, located at 1055 Airport Road.

This meeting will discuss many forestry topics including the benefits of OSWA membership, 2018 fire season update, the status of insect and disease issues and cost-share programs administered by ODF. OSWA staff will be in attendance to answer any questions about their program. ODF will also have a forester attending to give the regional update and answer questions.

"This is a great opportunity for landowners in the area to come get an update and meet other folks with similar goals and objectives, as well as learn about a valuable landowner association," said Hans Rudolf, ODF Stewardship Forester in Pendleton.

OSWA is a statewide organization composed of small woodland or forest owners who practice and believe in the strength of peer to peer communication between landowners, the strength of a unified effort to address legislative and regulatory changes and the strength of partnerships in addressing and solving common problems. OSWA is interested in forming a chapter for Umatilla and Morrow counties.

For more information on OSWA go to: <https://oswa.org/>. If you have any questions about the meeting, please call the ODF office in Pendleton at 541-276-3491.
