CARD OF THANKS

We would like to give a BIG thank you to the Heppner Fire Dept and Ambulance crew, Pioneer Memorial Hospital ER staff, Dr. Hambleton and Mike and Adrian Frink for the care that was given our daughter Brynna after her recent car accident. All the cards, calls, flowers, visits and food have been overwhelming. We feel so blessed to live in such a great community.

Thank you to everyone who rallied to the fire at the Bennett Ranch on Hinton Creek last Tuesday. There are not enough words to express our gratitude to everyone who brought equipment to fight the flames that raced across the hills in the heat and wind. We are still shaking our heads in disbelief that there were no structures lost to the fire on Hinton Creek. Thank you to the firemen on the Heppner Volunteer Fire Department and to all the districts that came to aide Heppner from Helix, Pendleton, Pilot Rock, Stanfield, Hermiston, Boardman, Ione, East Umatilla, Monument, Condon and Lexington. We were overwhelmed with the community members, friends, family and neighbors that helped anywhere there was a need.. Thank you to all the Morrow County First Responders, ODOT, Morrow County Road Dept, Morrow County Sheriff's Dept and Columbia Basin Electric for their parts in keeping everyone safe.
Special thanks to Bart Lentz and Jake Roy who never hesitated to jump on the bull dozers and head to the front line. Eric Orem for staying low on the hills to keep the fire from getting too close to our buildings, Thank you John Healy for helping Donald move the cattle, Bruce and Luke Young for all their equipment, water tankers, men and special handling of our family. Jeff Cutsforth you were a trooper who never left the top of the hill keeping an eye on things.. Thank you to our closest neighbor John Kilkenny for bringing his equipment down the road and aggressively taking care of business. We are forever grateful!
