CARD OF THANKS

The Doherty Family would like to thank the neighbors, firefighters and law enforcement who responded to the fire in Sand Hollow this past Friday evening. If not for your selflessness and hard work, this fire could have been much worse. The spirit of community in our area, and the value of having well trained rural fire crews was clear that evening. Please know how much we value good neighbors and our firefighters. Our sincere thanks,
Brian and Peggy Doherty Family

The Matheny families would like to thank all of the farmers, rural and local volunteer firefighters, and local police who responded to the fire at the ranch last Friday night. We are also grateful to the local college kids who reported the fire, called all the right people, and fought the fire. Due to everyone's quick response, all structures were safe and we thank all of you for that. We are blessed to live in such a great community who always comes to the rescue.
Thanks again,
The Matheny families

We offer sincere thanks to the many friends, family, neighbors, and well wishers who contributed flowers, food, cards, and charitable donations to help ease our sorrow in the loss of our mother and grandmother, Laurel Cannon. Special thanks to Janie Allen for the beautiful flower arrangements, the Ione football team for setting up tables and chairs, and the Good Neighbor Club for organizing the luncheon following the Celebration of Life. Also thanks to Willow Creek Assisted Living for their loving care during her short stay with them and Pat and Trish Sweeney who seamlessly helped us prepare a fitting memorial in her honor.

We appreciate and gratefully acknowledge everyone's kind expression of sympathy. It will always be remembered by our entire family.

My deep gratitude to those members of St. Patrick Parish who planned, prepared, and served the surprise Birthday Party for me. My thanks also for all the cards, gifts, and prayers offered for me. All of your kindness is appreciated.
