

Students sell poinsettias

Kylie Boor, 14, a freshman and Alex Cavin, 13, an eighth-grader at Heppner Junior/Senior High School are selling poinsettias to earn money to offset the cost of gear and tournaments as members of the Columbia River Heat travel softball team.

In addition to ASA softball, Kylie runs cross country and will play basketball and softball for HJSHS. Alex runs cross country and will play basketball and run track for the school.

The poinsettias come in red, white, pink or jingle bell (red/white mix) and sell for $15 each. Orders and the money are due by Nov. 1 and delivery will be around Thanksgiving. Call or text Felicia Cavan at 541-256-6232 or Shannon Boor at 541-377-5879 to place an order.

Columbia River Heat is a 14U ASA competitive travel softball team. Currently they are made up of players from Morrow and Umatilla counties. Their official tournament season starts in the spring although they have played a few fall tournaments. Entry fees for tournaments and gear for the girls can easily exceed $10,000 in a year. A large portion of this is covered through business sponsorship and fundraising. Columbia River Heat wants their team to be accessible to any girls who want to try out and play softball so they keep the fees as low as possible for them and give them opportunities to fundraise to offset those costs. The focus for the team is in building better athletes and citizens with high expectations for conduct.
