The Homestead 4-H Club held their monthly meeting at the Ione Legion Hall at noon on Nov. 4, with 15 members present. President Jake Heideman led the group in the Pledge of Allegiance and the 4-H Pledge, vice president Chris Dames took roll and secretary Corey Rice read the minutes of the last meeting. They were approved as read.

The club enjoyed presentations by Torie Rice and Lauren and Allison Crum on horse showmanship, fitting and grooming and also by Bronwyn Wright about rabbits and chickens. "It was neat hands-on lessons," said club reporter, Gage Heideman.

The next Homestead 4-H Club meeting will be on Dec. 16 at the home of Deacon and Erin Heideman for a club Christmas party.

AWANA to meet later on Nov. 18

Sunday, Nov. 18, Heppner AWANA Club will meet from 5:30 to 7 p.m. rather than the normal club time of 3-5 p.m. The change is to accommodate club members who would like to attend the 4-H Achievement Night in Ione earlier that day. Club time also has been shortened by half an hour so as not to keep club members out too late on a school night. The theme for the night is Flashlight Night. Heppner AWANA Club will not meet Sunday, Nov. 25 due to the Thanksgiving holiday. Club will resume Dec. 2 at the regular time of 3-5 p.m. for Shepherd Night. For more information, contact AWANA Commander Dale Bates at 541-676-5773 or join the Heppner AWANA Facebook group at <https://www.facebook.com/>
