

Dia de los Muertos celebrated

Below: Jacee Currin, Leo Waite, and Claire Grieb display pumpkins they created for Dia de los Muertos.

During the first of November, students in Mrs. Payne's Spanish II, III and IV classes at Heppner High School learned about and celebrated Dia de los Muertos (Day of the Dead). Dia de los Muertos is a holiday celebrated in many parts of Latin America as a time to remember and honor loved ones who have passed.

The holiday is a blend of indigenous and Latin American culture and has been celebrated for hundreds of years. In present day it is celebrated in many ways; some include parades, arts and crafts, music, food, visiting of the graves and creating altars for the deceased.

Spanish II students created ofrendas altars, or offering tables, in memory of a loved one. The ofrendas include pictures, favorite foods, drinks and pastimes of the deceased.

Spanish III and IV students created sugar skulls, masks and decorated pumpkins.

Community awards event scheduled
