We were pleasantly surprised by the amount of people that attended the memorial service for Roice. When you are 101 you encounter a large number of people. We would like to thank the following people for their help with the memorial service for Roice Fulleton. The Heppner Elks Lodge No. 358 for their heartfelt service. He would have enjoyed this being a life member!

The Elks Ladies for their assistance putting on the lunch: specifically Missy Lindsay, Lori Seitz, Carrie Grieb, Dawna Dougherty and Theresa Hughes and the Elks ladies for their contributions of potato salads (by special request). You really came through for us!
The Navy for the presentation of the flag to the family in a particularly moving ceremony. He was proud to have been a Naval Officer and member of the U.S. Navy.
Also this special group of people that were involved in Roice's care: Dr. Dan Hambleton, Trish and Pat Sweeney for their professional and personal care of our family; and Morrow County Home Health Care and Hospice.

A special Thank You to Willow Creek Terrace Assisted Living. George and the care givers gave 7 years of exceptional care to our dad, grandad and great grandad along with their care of our family which was above and beyond their jobs.
Special thoughts to the people that sent food, flowers and the many cards we received. Your donations to Willow Creek Terrace meant a great deal to us. You know what they say about small towns and they are right!
