The Heppner Jr. High School wrestling team finished out the season at the Eastern regionals wrestling tournament in Boardman on Saturday, March 2. Competing against wrestlers from all over the state, the four boys fought to earn a chance to compete at the Oregon Middle School State Wrestling Championship (OMSSWC) to be held Saturday, March 9 in Woodburn, OR.

Plagued by bad weather the team faced the cancellation of half their scheduled meets as well as multiple practices. The team made up of two sixth graders, one seventh grader and an eighth grader, worked hard to make up the missed time. Saturday's tournament found them making their way through brackets, some with as many as 32 competitors, trying to land that a maroon vehicle that was eastbound from Irrigon towards Umatilla was not maintaining lane or speed. OSP advised.

December 26: Morrow County Sheriff's Office received a report on SE Utah Ave, Irrigon of loud music coming from a vehicle in the area. RP advised it is disturbing the peace and RP may find it and handle in the top four.

In the end the team came home with one member, Keegin Chitty, placing second in his weight class, allowing him to move on to the OMSSWC championships. The team wishes Keegin good luck at state.

Coach Ken Bailey, along with Miles Binger who helped throughout the season, are very proud of the accomplishments their team achieved this year. For many of the boys this was their first year competing in the sport and it is not an easy one to jump into. Despite missing a lot of mat time, as a team they showed huge growth and represented Heppner well throughout the season.

The whole team is looking forward to next year's season and hopes to pick up a few more members.

it himself. Unable to locate.

Irish soup to be served

Members of St. Patrick's Catholic Church Altar Society are again offering a nice bowl of homemade Irish Potato Soup Friday, March 15 during the Wee Bit O' Ireland celebration.

The soup will be served from 4 to 7:30 p.m. at the St. Patrick's Parish Hall and will include rolls, a beverage and choice of dessert which will include homemade pie and Guinness beer chocolate cake. The cost for adults is $8 and $4 for children 10 and under.

Polar Plunge fundraiser scheduled

The first Heppner St. Patrick's Polar Plunge will be held at Willow Creek Dam on Willow Creek Rd. at 11 a.m. on Saturday, Mar. 16. Everyone is invited to come support the fundraiser with a good "reezin for freezin." All proceeds will be going to Fuzz Ball Pet Rescue, a non-profit organization that rescues animals in Umatilla and Morrow counties.

Registration will begin at 10 a.m. and the cost is $20 per plunger. A T-shirt donated by Les Schwab is included with each registration.

Those interested may register the day of the event, at Eventbrite.com or by contacting Deona Siex at 541-561-3337.

Tiller's Folly to perform Mar. 16

The main entertainment for St. Patrick's Wee Bit o' Ireland on Saturday, Mar. 16 will be Tiller's Folly. They will perform from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. in the St. Patrick's Parish Hall.

Tiller's Folly, one of the Pacific Northwest's most illustrious Celtic acts, have performed at festivals and fairs throughout the United States, Canada and the United Kingdom. Celtic music, whether it is Scottish ballads from their many tours of the Highlands or Irish jigs, they have a reputation for bringing high energy to their performances. They will perform Irish songs and stories about them, songs of happy wars, highwaymen and moonshiners as well as sad songs of love turned cold and the lonely emigrant's grief and sorrow and whimsical songs of the sea.

Prior to the concert, a local children's talent show will be held from 6 to 7:20 p.m. and the Blue Mountain Old Time Fiddlers will perform at the dance hall at the Morrow County Fairgrounds at 6:30 p.m.

Planning commission seeks volunteer

The Morrow County planning commission is seeking a volunteer to represent the Irrigon area, fulfilling a term ending Dec. 2020. At the end of the term there is an option to be reappointed for another four-year term. This position is limited to Irrigon area residents.

The planning commission meets once per month in either Boardman or Heppner and handles land use topics which include approval of land use actions, maintaining the county's subdivision and zoning ordinance, as well as working with the board of commissioners to manage the county's land use plan.

For additional information check the county website or contact the planning department staff. To apply, submit a letter of interest to the Morrow County Planning Department, PO Box 40, Irrigon, OR 97844 or via email to scooper@co.morrow.or.us by noon Monday, Mar. 18. The next Morrow County Planning Commission meeting will be held Mar. 26 in Heppner.

Family Hunt Club Looking for Big Game Land

Wildlife Development Association (WDA), a hunting club which is over 40 years old, is seeking to expand its leased big game hunting areas by 10,000+/- acres. WDA is known for promoting the highest standard of hunting ethics, hunter safety and family hunting.

Using club volunteers we hold annual work parties on leased properties working on projects directed by the property owner (fence and gate repair, road improvement, vegetation removal, etc.). We do projects to improve hunting, such as "No Trespassing" signage, and Predator Control program. References are available upon request.
