BPA Planned Outage Scheduled For Ione Area on March 22nd and 23rd

Columbia Basin Electric Cooperative, Inc. would like to announce to its members in the Ione area that The Bonneville Power Administration will be having a 10 hr. planned outage on March 22nd/23rd at their Ione substation. The outage is scheduled to begin Friday, March 22nd at 9:00 pm with re-energization scheduled for 7:00 am on the morning of the 23rd. BPA personnel will be replacing some damaged equipment that aids in the protection of CBEC's distribution lines outside of the substation. The upcoming outage was originally scheduled in December but had to be postponed. Columbia Basin Electric would like to apologize to its affected members for any inconvenience this outage may cause, but every measure was taken to schedule this outage at the least disruptive time possible. The 10 hour outage will affect only the CBEC members served out of the Ione BPA substation. Those areas include: Town of Ione, Ella Rd., Lower Rhea Creek, Brenner Canyon, Ione Gooseberry Rd., Dry Fork, Lower Willow Creek, North Lex and the surrounding areas. The communities of Heppner and Lexington will not be affected by this outage. If a member is unsure whether or not they will be affected by this outage, please call Columbia Basin Electric at 541-676-9146 and a CBEC representative will be happy to assist in answering any questions.
