

PMH Foundation awards scholarships and grants

The Pioneer Memorial Hospital Foundation board approved awarding Pioneer Memorial Hospital a grant in the amount of $15,600 to purchase an AccuVein and Biodex Sound Pro Combination Table. The AccuVein will allow greater ease when drawing blood at the hospital as it allows for vein visualization. The table will be used for a new service the hospital is providing, Echocardiography. Echocardiography is an ultrasound that shows images of the heart.

In other business the board awarded $1,500 for the Dr. Wallace Wolff Memorial scholarship to Ryan Dougherty. Ryan is attending Northern Arizona University Communication Sciences and Disorders program to receive her master's degree in speech language pathology.

Maddie Lindsay was awarded the Earl and Hazel Wilson Health Care Education scholarship in the amount of $1,500. Maddie has been accepted to the University of Western States to obtain her Doctor of Chiropractic degree.

Kevin Murray was awarded $1,250. Kevin is attending OSU where he is working toward an MBA and Doctor of Pharmacy degree. He has been admitted into OSU College of Pharmacy's Early Assurance Program.

Jessica Kempken was awarded $1,250. She is currently enrolled at OSU working towards her bachelor's degree in Bio Health Sciences with a focus in Pre-Pharmacy. Earl and Hazel Wilson scholarships in the amount of $1,000 were awarded to Sophie Grant, who is currently pursuing a degree in optometry at Pacific University; Taylor Hamby who is attending OSU and working toward her plan to go to dental school; Tania Mendoza who is attending OSU for pre-nursing and Beatriz Aguilera at Lane Community College, also for pre-nursing.

Others receiving scholarships in the amount of $500 each were Susanna Teeman, Claire Grieb, Hunter Nichols, Jacee Currin, Maria Aguilera and Faith Rosen to help them get started on the path to careers in healthcare.

The Pioneer Memorial Hospital Foundation is non-profit and any donations given to aid in grants and scholarship are tax deductible. For additional information, contact Cari Scrivner at carolines@mo-cohd.org.

Free spray days scheduled

For the tenth straight spring, the Morrow Soil and Water Conservation District will host free spray days in Morrow county. Stops are scheduled in Boardman at the Napa parking lot on Monday, May 13; Irrigon city park on Wednesday, May 15 and Heppner city park on Friday, May 17.

Times for all locations are from 9 a.m. to noon.

The herbicide, donated by Morrow County Grain Growers, is mixed by a licensed chemical applicator and comes in a labeled one-gallon container that is ready for use. It will include a safety data sheet (SDS) and participants are required to complete a cooperative agreement. The chemical can be used to treat weeds in the lawn without damaging the turf.

Happy Birthday, Stacey!
