THANK YOU

Card of Thanks

I have been in Heppner for five and a half weeks, helping my siblings and my brother-in-law provide end-of-life care for our mother and mother-in-law, Marie Meilan. During this time, and even prior to this interval, I have witnessed some truly heartwarming behavior in your community. For example, shortly after moving to Heppner in May 2018, Mother was readily accepted by the residents and staff of Saint Patrick's Apartments, and welcomed into the "extended family" that resides there. Then, when she became ill, the employees of Pioneer Memorial Home Health and Hospice were extraordinarily attentive and provided the very best of care. In particular I'd like to single out Caroline Jackson for exhibiting the epitome of professionalism and going above and beyond the call of duty, and Carmelo DiSalvo and Kelsie Worden for aiding me in countless ways. In addition, the folks at the Bank Eastern of Oregon, especially Bev, were very understanding and instrumental in helping me get Mother's finances in order. Recently, I went to Les Schwab to have a punctured bicycle tire repaired, so I could get out for some daily exercise. The employee who assisted me stopped what he was doing, and when he was done, he refused to accept any payment. All the guys at Les Schwab were fantastic. These are only a few examples, but there were innumerable other acts of kindness. I have travelled extensively and have never before encountered such a large collection of friendly and hospitable people. You all should be proud of yourselves.

Very sincerely yours,
Rick Meilan (West Point, IN), on behalf of April and John Herzog (Ione) and Terry Meilan (Gresham) 5-8-1p
