

Mustang girls finish third at state

The Heppner Mustang girls' golf team completed another outstanding season by finishing third at the OSAA 4A/3A/2A/1A State Golf Championship. This is the sixth year in a row that the Mustang girls' team has brought home a state trophy. Last year's team finished second, the year before that they were fourth and the three years previous to that they finished second. This year's state tournament was held at the Eagle Crest Resort Ridge Course. The Heppner team came out strong on day one and shot a 367 to put themselves solidly into the third position, 29 strokes ahead of fourth place. On day two they recorded a 374 to stretch their lead to 46 strokes over the fourth-place team.

St. Mary's of Medford won the team title with a two-day total of 638 and Valley Catholic was second with a 705. Heppner was third with their 741 and Woodburn took home the fourth-place trophy with a 787. La Grande finished fifth by shooting an 802.

Other schools who participated in the tournament were Astoria, Cascade Christian, Waldport, Seaside, Baker/Powder Valley, Sweet Home, Riverdale, Wallowa/Joseph, Blanchet Catholic, Gladstone, Oregon Episcopal, Salem Academy and Mazama.

Both Nicole Prophter and Sasha Keown from the Heppner team finished tied for eighth place overall and received a medal and flag for being on the all-state team. Nicole shot a 169 (83, 86) and Sasha was 169 (82, 87). Caitlyn Scrivner finished tied for 24th place with a 197 (99, 98) and Claire Grieb came in at 206 (103, 103) to finish 34th. Kennisyn Wilkins did well at her first state tournament and finished 40th as she shot a 216 (106, 110). Suzy Cason was with the team and available as a substitute if needed. A total of 60 girls participated in the state championship tournament this year.

The Mustangs will lose two seniors off of this year's state tournament team, Claire Grieb and Caitlyn Scrivner. Both of them will

Sheep Dog Mercantile to open in Heppner

Deb Green is in the process of opening her new store, Sheep Dog Mercantile, on Main Street in Heppner. The store will be selling vintage and handmade goods and refurbished furniture. She will have a sneak peak on May 23 from 6 to 8 p.m. with door prizes available. The grand opening will be sometime in July and she plans to be open Friday and Saturday from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m., with extra days available during Heppner events, such as the St. Patrick's celebration and the Morrow County Fair and Rodeo. Deb and her husband Darrell, the Morrow County Administrator, are not native to the Heppner area.

be greatly missed as they have participated in state tournament play for the last four years and helped the team win trophies at each of those tournaments. The future of the girl's program for next season continues to look bright as they return Propheter, Keown, Wilkins and Cason. The Mustangs were coached by Greg Grant and Matt Scrivner.

Deb was born and raised in a small town near John Day, Izee, OR where she attended a one room schoolhouse with only seven students until the eighth grade.

Green told the Gazette that she rekindled a friendship with a person who does pop up events selling vintage and farm style goods in the Portland/Vancouver area which inspired her to open up her shop. Her friend's business, "Two Sisters on the Fly" will contribute items to the store inventory to keep it always changing. She said the store is not a secondhand store and will sell quality items. Coral Mitchell's handmade pillows, including Charlie Parker Organic pillows will be available as well as Park Hill candles in the future. Local crafters are invited to contact Deb to add inventory.

Green noted that she intends to open up the back portion of the store for small events like book clubs, showers and small parties. She can be reached at 541-314-3185.
