4-H shooting members qualify for state

The winter months saw Morrow County 4-H complete its first year of trap shooting with 28 participants from across the county ages 9-17. It snowed, blew and hailed during some of the practice shoots, but this group was a dedicated lot and often showed up in snowmobile gear to get their rounds in.

Of the 28 participants, 16 qualified for the state contest and seven were able to attend the state trapshooting event in Albany June 18-19. Members who attended the state contest were Gage Heideman (Ione), Radley Griggs (Boardman), Aden Lathrop (Heppner), Owen Guerra (Heppner), Connor Wilson (Heppner), Carter Eynetich (Ione) and Calvin Rietmann (Ione).

The 2020 season will begin in January and the program is going to work to offer rifle skills in addition to trapshooting and will be coached by volunteers Stan Cutsforth, Ed Rietmann, Jim Eynetich and Erin Heideman. There will be an informational meeting for families on Sunday, November 10 at 3 p.m. at the Extension Office in Heppner and at 6 p.m. at the Port of Morrow building in the Sand Hollow Room.
