There are no words to express how humble and grateful this family feels for the experience this community granted us Saturday evening at the benefit dinner for Cindy.

Many generous people gave of their time, labor, goods and love to make this one of the most positive experiences of our lives. We can not thank all of you enough for your generosity and support.

We have discovered a newer and deeper understanding of the word "community". We feel very special and lucky to live in such a wonderful community, surrounded by family and friends.

So very thankful - incredibly grateful - unbelievably blessed!

With love and a wonderful sense of community!
