

MUSTANGS VS. BANDON

Bandon fumble deep in their own territory. Wolters then scored just three plays later when he blasted through the line from three yards out. Wilkins kicked the extra point to make the score 49-0 with nine minutes left in the third quarter.

At this point, the rest of the game would be played with the 45-point rule. That means the clock will continue to run almost all of the time once a team gets up by 45 points or more. The teams traded possessions several more times for the rest of the game. The Mustang coaches started to put in many of the reserves and younger players at this point so that they could get some valuable playoff game experience. The Mustangs forced another Bandon fumble that Wilkins recovered to give Heppner one last possession. After a couple of running plays, quarterback Casey Fletcher took a knee to end the game with the score 49-0.

Heppner had 18 first downs in the game to only eight for Bandon. The Mustangs rushed for 255 yards and held the Tigers to 104. Heppner passed for 56 yards and Bandon 49. The total yards in the game for the Mustangs was 311 compared to 153 yards for Bandon.

Wilson was 2-5 passing the ball for 64 yards and two touchdowns in the game. Cimmiyotti caught one pass for 41 yards and a score while Jackson Lehman also had one catch for 23 yards and a touchdown.

Leading the way in rushing was Wilson with 74 yards and a touchdown on three carries. Mason Lehman rushed for 60 yards on four carries and scored a touchdown and Hisler had four carries for 52 yards. Wolters was the workhorse running back on the day as he packed the ball 13 times for 50 yards and scored three touchdowns. Jace Coe rushed for 16 yards and Derrick Smith finished with three. Wilkins and Saul Lopez also carried the ball for the Mustangs.

The defensive effort was led by Hisler with eight tackles. Wolters was next with seven and with six tackles each were Jason Rea and Orem. Gavin Hanna-Robinson and Collins finished with five tackles each and with four tackles were Mason Lehman, Jackson Lehman, Wilson, Coe and Hayden Hyatt. Wilkins, Cimmiyotti and Kellen Grant each had three tackles in the game and with two tackles each were Evan Kollman, Kevin Rea and Conor Brosnan. With one tackle each were Casey Fletcher, Kegan Steagall and Cody Fletcher.

The game with Warrenton is scheduled for noon at Les Payne Field Saturday, November 16.
