Last week was busy for the Mustang wrestlers as they saw action in Echo at the Oregon Trail County Championships on Wednesday and at the Mac-Hi X-mas Tourney in Milton-Freewater on Saturday. Heppner had seven wrestlers competing in Echo.

Roan Waite wrestled at 113 pounds and went one for two and placed third. Bryan Collins, wrestling at 120 pounds, placed third also with one win by pin and a loss by points. Saul Lopez had a breakout tournament and placed second in the championship. He ended up with one victory by points and lost the Championship bout by points to a wrestler from Hermiston.

Edward Ellsworth competed at 145 pounds and placed sixth with two victories and one defeat. Heppner had two wrestlers competing at 160 pounds, Jace Coe and Conor Brosnan. Conor would end the day in fifth place with three victories by fall and one defeat by a fall. He placed fifth. Jace Coe wrestled his way to a first-place finish by two falls and one injury default. Suzanneah (Suzy) Cason wrestled, at 132 pounds, in the women's bracket and also had a breakout tournament. She would end up with two victories and one defeat on her way to a second-place finish.

On Saturday, the Mustang's wrestled at Mac-Hi with multiple athletes reaching the podium. Once again, Roan Waite wrestled at 113 pounds and placed second with two victories and one defeat. Bryan Collins competed at 120 pounds and would come away with a third-place finish. Bryan finished the day with one victory by fall and one defeat. Suzy Cason had a tough tournament competing in the men's bracket and ended the day with two losses at 132 pounds. Saul Lopez also competed at 132 pounds and had another great tournament by placing first. He ended the day with two victories and no defeats. Once again, Heppner had two wrestlers competing at 160 pounds, Jace Coe and Conor Brosnan. The two would end up facing each other in the championship match after each of them won two victories. Jace would claim the victory with a hard-fought battle that ended four to three. The team earned a fifth place finish out of ten teams competing.

The young wrestlers get a two-week break and will be back in action on January 3 at Joseph in a two-day tournament.

The Heppner Mustang boys' basketball team dropped two pre-season games this week as they fell to the Riverside Pirates 50-37 and were beaten by the Myrtle Point Bobcats 60-55.

Against the 3A Pirates, the Mustangs trailed after the first quarter 10-7. Heppner then outscored the Pirates in the second quarter to only trail at the half 20-19. The third quarter saw the Mustangs have trouble scoring as they could only manage to put six points on the board compared to 14 for Riverside. The Pirates also won the fourth quarter 16-12 to get the win by the score of 50-37.

Mason Lehman led the team with nine points and five rebounds. Jayden Wilson scored eight points and hauled down eight boards. With six points and two rebounds, two assists and three steals was Jackson Lehman. Kason Cimmiyotti scored five points and Casey Fletcher had three. With two points each were Jordan Sweeney, Kellen Grant and Brock Hisler.

Again the Mustangs started out a game trailing after the first quarter, this time against the Myrtle Point Bobcats. It was 19-14 in favor of the Bobcats until the Mustangs outscored them in the second quarter 15-10 to tie the score at halftime 29-29. Myrtle Point had a big third quarter scoring 16 and holding the Mustangs to only 10 points. Heppner did win the fourth quarter but lost the game by the score of 60-55.

Wilson led the Mustangs with 17 points, five rebounds and three steals. Mason Lehman was next with 10 points, three rebounds and two assists.

Mustang Casey Fletcher (5) takes the ball down the court.

Jackson Lehman had nine points and four assists in the game. Hisler also had nine points for the Mustangs to go along with five rebounds and two steals. Cimmiyotti was next with seven points and nine big rebounds for the team. Grant finished with two points and Gavin Hanna-Robinson had one point and two assists. Sweeney had two rebounds and Fletcher finished with a rebound, an assist and a steal.

The Mustang JV boys' team lost a close game to the Riverside Pirates by the score of 38-34. Roy Collins led the team with 11 points and Cimmiyotti had eight. With four points each were Tucker Ashbeck and Blake Carter. Cody Fletcher finished with three points and with two each were Derrick Smith and Brian Lindsay.

Both the JV and Varsity were dealt a blow when sophomore Joe Sherman had to have surgery to have his appendix removed recently. He had been playing very well for both teams and will be missed as he will be out for at least a month.
