Heideman selected as international 4-H Exchange Ambassador

Jake Heideman, a 4-H member from Morrow County, has been selected to participate in the International 4-H Exchange program this summer as a 4-H Ambassador. 4-H International Exchange Ambassador Programs offer opportunities for young people to explore another country and culture and experience how families in other countries live during four to eight-week summer exchange programs. These programs enable young people from around the US to increase their global understanding and improve their leadership and communication skills.

Heideman applied to be in the program in October, participated in an interview with the state 4-H international director in November and was vetted at a national level before being accepted to represent Oregon. Beginning in mid-June, Heideman will spend five weeks in Costa Rica as part of his experience.

"I'm really excited to travel to Costa Rica," said Heideman. "Getting the opportunity to live in another country is a unique opportunity. While I've traveled internationally quite a bit, I've not lived the life with another family and that will be special."

Heideman is a senior at Lone Community School

Jake Heideman and the son of Deacon and Erin Heideman. He will be entering the US Navy in August.
