CARD OF THANKS

To the Morrow County Road Crew:

Thank you for all the effort and work you contributed to install a culvert in the road to our home. The problem was getting increasingly worse, and you put in a permanent solution instead of a 'temporary fix.' People traveling over it have said, "Wow, your mud hole is gone!" We appreciate it.

Many thanks to all who contributed to David's survival on the fateful evening of June 12. I would be a widow today were it not for the quick and knowledgeable response of the team at Pioneer Memorial's ER. We also appreciate the care David has received at Pioneer Memorial since he returned from OHSU. Also the cards, offers of help, phone calls, prayers, visits, and flowers were so kind of everyone. I really believe it is the response to your prayers that pulled David through and continues to sustain us during his convalescence. Although David's meds were not an issue this time, they certainly were last October. So here is a long overdue thank you to Ann Murray for going above and beyond to get the life saving medicine David needed and at an affordable price. Where but Heppner could we receive such loving support. God bless, Neva and David DeMayo
