Golfer gets hole in one at WCCC

Kyle Harrison got a hole in one at Willow Creek Country Club on August 16 on hole number six. Kyle, a Heppner High School graduate and former member of the HHS varsity golf team, now lives in Helix, OR.

Over the Tee Cup

The August 11 playday at Willow Creek Country Club hosted 13 ladies on to Judy Harris and Pat Eda nice summer day. Nancy Propheter earned low gross of the field. Tiffany Clement got low net of the field and Pat Dougherty had the least putts.

Low gross for flight A low net. Lorene Montgomwas a tie between Virginia Grant and Karen Thomp- ery had the least putts and son. Nancy Propheter got Kathy Martin got K.P.

Golfers play Par 3 Challenge

The Willow Creek Country Club men com- in net with 52 and the peted in a Par 3 Challenge, second-place winner was a modified course from regular play, on Sunday, August 16. Twenty golfers participated.

In special events, Dave Creswick got KP on #3/13with 10'1/2" and also on 9/18 with 7'3".

First place gross went to Greg Grant with a score of 58 and Ron Bowman was second with 60. Dave Pranger took third with 63 and Charlie Ferguson came clubhouse by August 25. in fourth with 64.

Tom Shear was first Barry Munkers with 53. Loren Heideman and Dave Gunderson tied for third Flight B low gross went mundson had low net. Karen Haguewood had the least putts and Tiffany Clement

tin was the winner for low gross and Kris Lindner took

On flight C Kathy Margot K.P.

with 55. The next scheduled event will be the shootout, which is a 27-hole event with a partner. David Allstott, Gary Watkins and Dave Gunderson will be hosting. The Ryder Cup is scheduled for August 30, with signups due at the school districts, students, student's parent, guardian parents and teachers are or other "learning facilitastruggling with the effects tor" is as much a part of this of COVID-19 on how to op- program and the fabric of erate schools, offer instruc- the student's experience as tion and ensure students she is as the teacher. continue to progress. In Oregon, very few schools the school district is able will be able to have their to retain the student, which first day of school with all means retaining the state K-12 students on-site in a funds allocated to that school building.

IMESD collaborates on district virtual learning academies

guidelines from Oregon Academy has been a strong Health Authority (OHA) program for several years. and the Oregon Depart- For Marie Shimer, Director ment of Education (ODE), of Educational Services at with the support of the Morrow County School IMESD, its 18 component District, it's more than reschool districts have de- taining student funds, it's veloped Virtual Learning finishing the educational Academies, programs that journey with a student who offer online instruction with may have started kindergarbenefits for districts and students/families alike.

es of the Virtual Learning district families have in-Academies are:

rolled in their own home the district to enroll in a school district

by local licensed teachers -Students have the flexibility to combine online Shimer explains Morrow and on-site classes

pate in extracurricular ac- to stay with MCSD. "Of tivities (athletics, music, course, we don't want our clubs, etc.)

for academic support & enrichment

-Technology and internet access support is provided

These programs are different than ODE's Comprehensive Distance Learning (CDL) model being used by school districts this fall in response to COVID-19. The district-based academies allow parents and students the opportunity school year.

Sunday, August 16 due to Ellie Sak, Res. Champion Lair, IMESD's Director district," said Earl Pettit, COVID-19 restrictions. and Novalee Campbell, of Teaching and Learning, Cove Superintendent. The results were: Se- Champion; Beginner - Eva some districts have had robust virtual academies many students, especially serving students for several younger learners, definiteyears. "While many of our ly benefit from in-person districts have already had instruction in a traditional these in place, the constantly changing needs, especially recently with school school administrators and closures, of educating stu- teachers really want to redents have heightened the turn to school buildings. necessity to offer stronger online options," Lair said. IMESD hired two new el- tion; however, we have an ementary teachers for the opportunity to pull from virtual programs. These these trials the pieces that teachers will be providing work. We must be ready instruction in K-2 and 3-6 to embrace a landscape in grade bands. They will education that is forever be meeting with students changed, one that focuses and families and develop- on the importance of coning relationships alongside nection to community and structures and supports for multiple modalities to meet success this fall. Kristen the needs of our students," Simpson, the primary level Lair said.

Across the country, teacher, explained that a

Another asset is that student. Morrow County Despite the changing School District's Morrow ten in the district.

During COVID-19 Some of the advantag- Shimer said that a few quired about moving to -Students remain en- homeschooling or leaving web-based online academy, -All grades are taught both options that take state funding away from the district. However, when Academy and what it of--Students can partici- fers, most families choose enrollment to decrease, we -Access to learning labs want our budgets to remain stable," Shimer said, "but also, these are our kids, our students and they live in our communities. As a public school, we are committed to their success."

In rural Union County, Cove School District has expanded its online learning program for the 20-21 school year. Previously, the district used internet-based platforms for credit recovery and some college to remain enrolled and re- courses. Beginning this fall, ceive support from their the Cove Virtual Learning local school district, while Academy will allow addioffering another learning tional choices for families. option in addition to their "Developing new options district-based plan this for our learners, with support from the IMESD, has According to Erin been really positive for our IMESD's Lair says school setting, and Oregon's students, parents, "The pandemic has created a lot of uncertainty and This summer, the unease relating to educa-

Virtual 4-H Fashion Revue held

Novalee Campbell shows off the outfit she put together for the Ready to Wear contest in the 4-H Fashion Revue.

The annual 4-H fash-

- Kylnn McNamee, Blue, Savannah Browne, Res. Champion and Ellie Sak, Champion; Beginner - Audrey Sak, Res. Champion and Eva Worden, Champion.

In the FR Challenge: Junior Ellie Sak was Champion and Beginner Audrey Sak was Champion.

In the My Favorite Outfit category, Intermediate - Arianna Worden, Champion; Junior - Ellie Sak, Blue, Klynn McNamee, Res. Champion and Savannah Browne, Champion; Beginner - Audrey Sak, Res. Champion and Eva Worden, Champion.

For Ready to Wear: Intermediate - Arianna Worden, Champion; Junior - Savannah Browne, Blue, ion review was held via Klynn McNamee, Blue, six hours of Zoom on Jeweleana Chappell, Blue, Isabella Orr, who will be a junior at Ukiah HS, models the dress she made.

nior - Isabella Orr, Champi- Worden, Res. Champion on; Intermediate - Arianna and Audrey Sak, Cham-Worden, Champion; Junior pion.

Cousins Eva Worden, Kylnn McNamee and Arianna Worden model during the 2020 Morrow County 4-H Fashion Revue.

ALL NEWS AND ADVERTISEMENT DEADLINE: MONDAYS AT 5:00 P.M.

Print & Mailing Services

*Design *Print *Mail

Sykes Publishing 541-676-9228

ASK US HOW TO GET THE AMAZING iPHONE[®] 11 FOR $0 WHEN YOU SWITCH TO AT&T

Find out how to get our most popular phones, call now!

877-589-1518

AT&T Preferred Dealer

© 2020 AT&T Intellectual Property. All rights reserved. AT&T and the Globe logo are registered trademarks of AT&T Intellectual Property. All other marks are the property of their respective owners.