Joyce I. Grasser

Joyce I. Grasser, 98, former longtime Heppner resident, died Sunday, August 9, 2020 at her nieces' home in Junction City, OR. A graveside memorial service was held on Sunday, August 23 at the Heppner Masonic Cemetery.

Joyce I. Grasser

She was born April 6, 1922, at Priest River, ID, the daughter of Joseph and Lurena Stedman Peterson.

Joyce spent parts of two years in Newburg, so she could go to church school. A few years later, Grand Ronde had grown, and both Joyce and her brother Lawrence could attend church school near home. In 1941 she graduated from Academy: Laurelwood. She then attended college in Walla Walla and graduated in 1951.

Joyce was an elementary school teacher for many years. She taught in Myrtle Point, Sweet Home, Klamath Falls, Grants Pass and Roseburg, usually staying two years at a school. Joyce applied for work on the new Bible course that was being introduced by the Radio Group, Voice of Prophecy. She sent in the registration material and was accepted. It was a new experience and she enjoyed it for nine years.

On March 11, 1965, she married Lester S. Grasser at Glendale, CA and the couple then moved to Heppner. "They enjoyed over 40 wonderful years together," her family said. Joyce and Lester enjoyed traveling to visit relatives across America. Included in their travels was a European trip with a tour group in honor of the 500th birthday of the reformer, Martin Luther. The couple also did volunteer driving as a husband-wife team for the Department of Human Resources out of Pendleton for several years, taking people who needed rides for medical appointments. Joyce was an active member of the Seventh Day Adventist Church.

Survivors include her nieces and nephews, Barbara, Don, Carl, Crystal, Susan and Bob. She was preceded in death by her husband, Lester; a sister Iris and her brothers, Lawrence and Joe Jr.

Memorial contributions may be made to the donor's favorite charity. Sweeney Mortuary of Heppner is in care of arrangements. The online condolence book is available at www.sweeney-mortuary.com.

Stephen Paul Hedman

Stephen Paul Hedman, 67, of Santa Rosa, CA died at his home on July 15. Mr. Hedman was born November 29, 1952 to Arnie and Rita Belmore Hedman in Hancock, MI. The family lived in Athena and Ione before settling in Heppner in 1963. He graduated from Heppner High School in 1971 and attended Eastern Oregon College before later earning his psychiatric technician certificate.

Stephen Paul Hedman

Steve was a talented musical artist who performed across the west coast for many years. He later worked as a psychiatric technician at Sonoma Developmental Center in Santa Rosa until he retired in 2016. He had many interests besides music, including fishing, hunting, astrology, photography and ham radio communication.

Survivors include his son, Raimie Hedman of Irrigon; his mother, Rita Hedman-DeZote of Heppner; siblings, Jon Hedman of Irrigon, Dale Hedman of Dayton, WA, Dee Miller of Hillsboro and Tim Hedman of Heppner. His father, Arnie, and brother, Mike, preceded him in death.

According to his family, "His wonderful sense of humor will be forever missed." Private memorial services are being planned.
