

Boardman swears in mayor and four councilors

The City of Boardman swore in Mayor Paul E. Keefer, Councilor Brenda Proffitt, Councilor Katy Norton, Councilor Paul Beagle and Councilor Isaac Williams. They will serve a four-year term with an expiration date of December 31, 2024 with the exception of Councilor Isaac Williams who was appointed into a vacant position with an expiration date of December 31, 2022.

The city council elected Councilor Roy Drago Jr as Council President for 2021. The city also voted to re-appoint Ted Lieurance and Lisa Mittelsdorf to the budget committee with a term ending December 31, 2023. Also, re-appointed are Zack Barresse and Ragana TenEyck to the planning commission with a term ending December 31, 2023.

A public hearing was held to receive public comment concerning a request for a zone change and map amendment for tax lot #1600 of Morrow County Tax Map 4N 25 9CC. The city council voted against the zone change and map amendment.

A proposal was presented by Kimberly Lindsey, Community Counseling Solutions, to open and operate a combined Behavioral Rehabilitation Services and Psychiatric Residential Treatment Facility focused on the care of younger children between the ages of six and eleven, with a capacity of up to 14 children in the Boardman area.

The next meeting of the Boardman city council will be a workshop on Saturday, January 23, 2021 at 8 a.m. at Boardman City Hall.

Joseph Charles Herb

Joseph Charles "Joe" Herb, 79, a resident of the Wilsonville community, passed away December 31, 2020 at his home.

Joseph Charles Herb

Joe was born on April 2, 1941, in Portland, OR. He was the oldest of three sons born to Daniel Charles and Rena (Hertel) Herb. He was raised in Roy, attended St Francis Catholic Grade School, graduating from Central High School in 1959.

While working in Forest Grove for First National Bank, he met his future wife, Peggy Kirkpatrick. They married on June 8, 1963, in Forest Grove. As they followed Joe's banking career around Oregon, they made homes in Lebanon, Albany, Junction City, Stayton and Medford. In 2014, they moved to Wilsonville, OR. They had four children together: Deborah, Mary, Andrew, and Daniel. Peggy passed away February 16, 2020.

Joe began his banking career in 1959, with First National Bank, which later became First Interstate Bank, then Wells Fargo. In later years, he moved to Western Bank, then finally Washington Mutual Bank, where he was Vice President of Lending in the southern Oregon region until he retired in 2001.

In addition to his banking career, Joe was also a member of the Oregon National Guard. He entered the ROTC program in the early 1960s, completed Officer Training School and served over 28 years before retiring in 2001 as a colonel.

Joe was very involved in civic organizations, and over the years, was a member of the Lions Club, Kiwanis and Rotary International, where he presided as president in both Albany and Medford. He was actively involved in the Albany Chamber of Commerce, and in 1992, was awarded Citizen of the Year. Joe taught banking classes at Linn Benton Community College and at Marylhurst College. He was a lifelong member of the catholic church and actively volunteered at church and school events, school boards, fundraisers and at mass.

He is preceded in death by his loving wife, Peggy, his parents, and a brother, John. He is survived by his four children and their spouses; Deborah and Scott Wryn of Ione, OR, Mary VanKleeck and her companion Daniel McNabb of Sherwood, Andrew and Virginia Herb of Coeur d'Alene, ID, Daniel and Kelly Herb of Salem; a brother and his spouse, David and Sally Herb; six grandchildren, Joseph, Christopher, Brett, Brianna, Samantha and Jack; and seven nieces and nephews.

The family suggests donations be made in Joe's name to the Oregon Food Bank.
