Cattle Barons weekend and scholarships scheduled

The Pendleton Cattle Barons Weekend's comeback year is scheduled for April 30 and May 1, 2021. This year's event is being planned to include all the great happenings of the past.

The invitational select gelding sale will lead the way and will be accented by the working cow dog sale, both occurring on Saturday, May 1 at the Pendleton Convention Center. Another event planned around the ranching heritage weekend is the Friday, April 30 ranch rodeo. Saturday also includes the engraved jewelry and leather work exhibition and demonstrations held during the western themed trade show, the barbeque challenge and evening close-out event, the stock saddle bronc championship.

The events of the 2021 Pendleton Cattle Barons continue to support the Pendleton Cattle Barons Weekend scholarship program. Currently scholarship applications are being accepted through the Cattle Barons website. Included this year is the Protect the Harvest sponsored scholarship. Applications are due March 15, 2021. Applicants for the scholarships must currently be or plan to be enrolled in undergraduate or graduate agricultural studies and be from the eastern Oregon area.

More information about the Pendleton Cattle Barons' Weekend scholarship programs and the events scheduled for April 30 and May 1, 2021 can be found at https://www.cattlebarons.net/.
