

Winter dumps snow across south county this week

Heppner, OR February 15, 2021 John DeLeonard

Photographer Tylynn Cimmiyotti added this comment for this photo, "Yesterday I was motivated by Aaron, Meredith Walters' son, to climb the hill behind my house to recreate a photo inspired by a historic, snowy photo of Heppner taken in February of 1929. After getting permission from the landowner to hike his property, I was fortunate enough to capture one of my most favorite photographs of my most favorite little town nestled in the snowy valley."

Samantha Lamb shows off her skills while her dad watches.

A lone sledder prepares to make a run down one of the steep streets in Heppner.

Rocky Turner and daughter Dylan enjoy the snow.

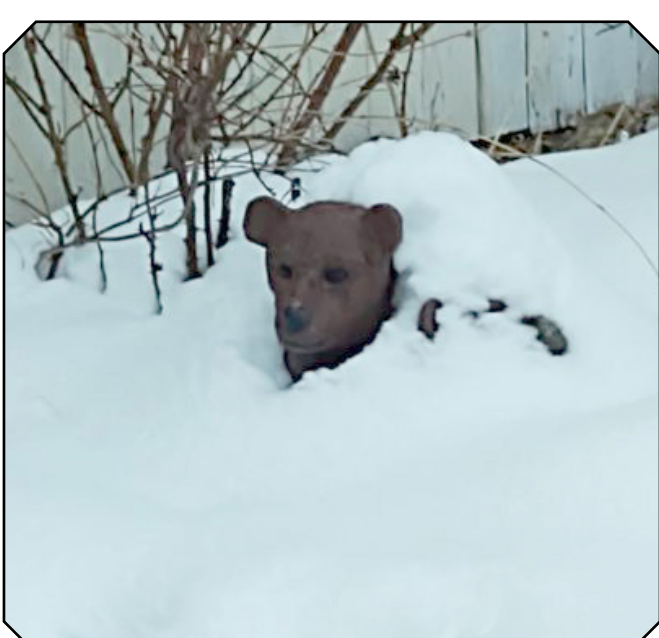

Joe and Georgia Miles enjoyed their day of fun in the snow.

Sandy McDonald added a face after nature created a snowman.

Charlee Schiller makes do with a feed tub for a sled while her sister Vey heads back for another run.

A bear appears to be coming out of hibernation as the snow begins to melt on Monday.

Above: The Morrow County Courthouse basks in the sun surrounded by snow. Below: The town of Heppner is surrounded by snow and blue skies on Monday. -Photos by Giselle Moses.

Heppner's Main Street was plowed but didn't have much traffic on it during the snowy weather.

ALL NEWS AND ADVERTISEMENT DEADLINE:
MONDAYS AT 5:00 P.M.