

PUBLIC NOTICE

NOTICE OF SUPPLEMENTAL BUDGET HEARING

* For supplemental budgets proposing a change in any fund's expenditures by more than 10 percent.

A public hearing on a proposed supplemental budget for Morrow County, Oregon for the current fiscal year will be held at the Bartholomew Building 110 N. Court Street Heppner, OR.

The hearing will take place on March 17, 2021 at 9:00 AM. The purpose of the hearing is to discuss the supplemental budget with interested persons.

A copy of the supplemental budget document may be inspected or obtained on or after March 8, 2021 at Morrow County Finance Department 110 N. Court St. Heppner, OR, between the hours of 8:00 AM and 5:00 PM.

SUMMARY OF SUPPLEMENTAL BUDGET

FUND:	CAPITAL IMPROVEMENT PROJECT FUND	Amount
Resource	Expenditure
1 Reimbursements - Credit Bond Proceed	1 Capital Outlay	$4,753,186
	2 Other Requirements	$2,146,814
Revised Total Resources	Revised Total Requirements	$7,324,049

Total APPROPRIATIONS, All Funds $52,302,325
 Total Unappropriation and Reserve Amounts, All Funds $ 9,082,597
TOTAL ADOPTED BUDGET $61,384,922

The supplemental budget would authorize an increase in Capital Improvement Project Fund revenue and total expenditures, due to an increase in credit bond proceeds. The proceeds will increase capital outlay for the north-end facility building project expenditures budgeted through June 30, 2021. The remaining bond proceeds will be unappropriated until fiscal year 2021-2022. The north-end facility completion date is 2022.

Obituaries

Amber J'nae Rollis

Amber J'nae Rollis, 42, of Heppner, passed away Sunday, February 28, 2021 at Legacy Emmanuel Hospital in Portland, OR.

Amber J'nae Rollis

Amber was born on November 19, 1978 in Heppner, the daughter of James and June Rollis of Heppner. She was the middle child of an older sister, April A. Rollis and a younger brother, Dustin D. Rollis.

She attended school in Heppner from kindergarten through 10th grade. Throughout her life she was involved in a variety of school and church activities.

At a young age she found employment at Shari's Restaurant in Hermiston, before employment at Safeway also in Hermiston. Amber worked in the Hermiston Safeway for a number of years before moving to Phoenix, AZ where she continued working for Safeway for the next 15 years.

Amber enjoyed shopping for gifts online to send to her parents, spending a day at Renaissance Festivals and loved attending live performances of the Celtic Women Singers and reading either paperbacks or on her Kindle. She also loved the color purple, and cats-all cats. Amber made many friends throughout her life.

In November 2019 Amber moved back home to live with her parents in Heppner. She loved to win any card game and cooking breakfast for her dad. Amber and her mom often went shopping at Goodwill in Hermiston and had lunch at the Chinese restaurant.

On February 20, 2021 Amber was taken to the ER at Good Shepherd Hospital by her parents and after a series of tests and CT scans she was flown to Legacy Emmanuel Medical Center where she was diagnosed with Pulmonary Hypertension – high blood pressure in the arteries of the lungs. As part of her treatment, she was put in a drug induced coma, and was unable to regain consciousness when they were removed. She remained in the ICU a full week and had outstanding medical care staff doing all they could to save her life. On Sunday morning, February 28, 2021 Amber lost her battle against this disease.

Survivors include her parents, James and June of Heppner; a sister, April of Wildwood, FL and a brother, Dustin D. Rollis and his wife Jillian and nephew Hunter of Elk, WA as well as many aunts, uncles and cousins.

A graveside service for Amber J. Rollis will be held at 11 a.m. Friday, March 12, 2021 at the Heppner Masonic Cemetery with a celebration of life to follow at 12 p.m. at the Willow Creek Baptist Church, 560 Minor Street, Heppner.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Willow Creek Baptist Church, PO Box 661, Heppner, OR 97836. Sweeney Mortuary of Heppner is in care of arrangements. The online condolence book is available at www.sweeney-mortuary.com.

Donald L. Clark

Donald L. Clark, 99, formerly of La Grande, died Feb. 20, 2021 in Jacksonville, AL. A private graveside service with interment at the Heppner Masonic Cemetery will be held after COVID-19 restrictions are lifted and it is safer to travel.

Donald L. Clark

Known as Don, he was born in Ukiah to Lynn and Lydia (Ochs) Clark. He graduated from high school in Ukiah in 1939.

Don worked for the U.S. Forest Service until he was drafted in September 1942. He was a medic in the Philippines and Japan during the war and was discharged in January 1946. When he returned home he worked for the Forest Service and attended college. After finishing college, he began a 22-year teaching career in Pilot Rock in 1950. He later taught in Pendleton, Heppner, Ione and La Grande.

Upon retiring from teaching, Don worked for the Oregon State Employment Office as a counselor for 11 years. Beginning in 1988 he worked for the Forest Service Wildlife Habitat Lab for eight years.

Don was a member of the Elks Lodge for 30 years and a member of the Island City Lions Club.

Surviving relatives include his children and their spouses, Donald Jr. and Barbara Clark of Maryville, TN, Richard and Shirley Clark of Jacksonville, AL and Linda Kay and Bill Reimiller of Portland; foster son, John Cole and his wife, Susan, of St. George, UT; 10 grandchildren and 18 great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Loray, and son, David L. Clark, who was killed in Vietnam in 1967.

Terry Leroy Toll

Terry Leroy Toll, 59, of Prineville, OR passed away at home on Thursday, March 4, 2021. He was born May 20, 1961 in Heppner to Leonard and Rene (Griffith) Toll. Terry grew up in Heppner, participating in Webelos Scouts, Little League and dirt bike riding. He graduated from Heppner High School class of 1979 and went on to Wyoming Technical Institute and graduated from the Auto Diesel Mechanic's program. Terry moved to Prineville in 1982. He married Lauri Boone in 1992, and later divorced. Terry worked for Les Schwab for 16 years, and finished his career working in the aircraft manufacturing and maintenance industries.

Known by his friends as Gumby, Taz, or Tear em' Up Terry, he was the life of the party. Many would remember him by the laughs he imparted. He was quick to make people feel respected and appreciated and he had a genuine heart. Terry loved everything automotive and motorcycles. His greatest passion was being outdoors. Terry especially enjoyed spending time at a family cabin in the Blue Mountains riding snowmobiles and four-wheelers. Later in life he found a deep conviction for the Lord.

Terry was preceded in death by his mother and stepfather, Rene and John

Terry Leroy Toll

Ledbetter; stepmother Lorine Toll and stepsister Jeanette Sunseri. He is survived by his daughter, Leah (Jacob) Snodgrass; granddaughters, Jayde and Lyndi Wolfenbarger; father, Leonard Toll; sisters, Toni (Jeff) Roach and Tami Johlke; stepsisters, June Bennett and Judy (Mike) Lathrom and a cluster of other loving family members and friends.

A celebration of life for Terry will be held in Heppner at a later date. Donations in the name of Terry L. Toll can be made to the Heppner Library-Museum, PO Box 325, Heppner, OR 97836.

Toby Dale Rodriguez

Toby Dale Rodriguez, 42, died Wednesday, February 14, 2021 at St. Alphonsus Medical Center in Baker City.

He was born March 2, 1971, to parents Sandra and Dale Rodriguez in Hermiston, OR. Toby lived most of his life in and around Irrigon. At the time of his sudden death, he was living in North Powder, OR.

He worked for some time at Northwest Fabricators in Hermiston and various odd jobs. He was presently working for Sunshine Express Trucking in Boardman, OR. With his companion of several years, Cindy Hilling, two children were born, Milly Rodriguez and Dustin Rodriguez, both of Hermiston. With his current, and much-loved, companion of 11 years, Nicole Lawyer, a son was born, Colton. Toby then became father to Ashley Talbot and Bryan Lawyer.

According to his family, he had the gift of "helps" and was able to do most anything. He was always willing to help family, friends and even people he didn't even know. He was a very hard worker. He will be greatly missed.

He is survived by his parents, Sandra Eubanks and Dale Rodriguez; brothers, Rocky, Rusty and Casey Rodriguez; significant other, Nicole Lawyer; sons, Colton, Bryan and Dustin; daughters, Ashley and Milly and one grandson.

A celebration of life will be held at Columbia View Community Church, 1240 E. Highway 730 in Irrigon, on March 13, 2021, at 1 p.m., following state COVID-19 guidelines.

Sweeney Mortuary of Heppner is in care of arrangements. The online condolence book is available at www.sweeney-mortuary.com.
