

Beverly Ann Harris

Beverly Ann Harris, of Heppner, 79, passed away on May 21, 2021 in Heppner.

Beverly was born to Laverne and Victor Hilderman in Roundup, Montana on May 22, 1941. After the couple divorced, she was adopted by her step-father, Herman Schmidt. The family made their home in Portland, Oregon where Bev graduated high school. It was there that she met her husband, Bobby Harris. The couple married on April 20, 1961 and celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary in April of this year.

Bob and Bev moved to the Ione area in 1978 when Bob began work on the construction of the Coal Fire Plant in Boardman. They moved to Hardman in 1980 and resided there until 2015 when Bob got sick, and they moved to Heppner to be closer to their kids.

Bev worked at Wright's Country Store at Ruggs until its closing. She then worked at Court Street Market and later at Coast to Coast Hardware until she retired.

Bev loved crocheting, sewing, and quilting. Above all else though, she loved her family. She was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother and great grandmother. After her husband was diagnosed with dementia and she was no longer able to care for him at home, she made a weekly trip to Hermiston to visit him in long term care. She was most often accompanied by her great grandson, Jaime, who had a special place in her heart. Her passing will be felt deeply by many.

She is survived by her husband of 60 years, Bobby Harris Sr, Hermiston, daughter Connie Harris of Gervais, daughter Shirley Harris of Heppner, son Bobby Harris Jr. (Senie) of Irrigon, son Gene Harris (Patty) of Heppner and daughter Candy Chick (Kevin) of Heppner, as well as 15 grandchildren and 39 great-grandchildren. She is also survived by her brother Gary of Milwaukie, OR.

She was preceded in death by her parents Herman and Laverne Schmidt and her brother Dean. A memorial graveside service will be held on June 18, 2021 at 1 p.m. at the Heppner Masonic Cemetery.

Lindsay John Kincaid

Lindsay J. Kincaid, 83, of Ione died May 15, 2021, at Heppner. A private family service was held at High View Cemetery in Ione.

He was born on September 8, 1937, at Heppner to Harold Oliver and Ruby Louise Padberg Kincaid. He was raised and attended grade school in Ione, then Ordinance Jr. High School in Hermiston and he graduated from Ione High School in 1956. He attended Eastern Oregon College and Oregon Technical Institute. He served in the Air Force as a military policeman stationed at Mtn. Home Air Force Base in Idaho.

On January 27, 1962, he married Diana May Wright who was teaching school in Heppner at the time. The couple raised two daughters, Margaret Louise and Mary Lucille.

Lindsay farmed on the family ranch in Ione that was homesteaded in 1884 and later drove truck for a living. He coached the Ione Indian and Willow Creek All-Star Little League baseball teams. He also coached and started the first Morrow County Babe Ruth team. Lindsay was an avid local sports fan as well as a LA Rams fan since childhood. He volunteered his time driving the Ione sports bus to games, kept score for basketball and was on the chain gang for football. One of his favorite seasonal traditions was dressing up as Santa Claus. He had a fondness for vintage trains and planes. Lindsay had a passion for collecting cars and traveling to car shows. He had fun playing chauffeur while taking people in his limousine to various events.

Lindsay enjoyed his regular card games with friends in Ione and trips to the Wild Horse Casino in Pendleton. He was a member of the Willows Grange, Lions Club, American Legion, Three Rivers Corvette Club and was very active in the Elks Lodge #358 where he had served as Exalted Ruler.

He is survived by his daughters, Mary of Lincoln City and Margaret of Madras. His wife, Diana, preceded him in death as well as his brothers Roger, Ralph, and Lyle.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Heppner Elks 358 Foundation, PO Box ,494 Heppner, Oregon 97836.

Marion Cornett Green

Marion Cornett Green, 88, of Pendleton, died Wednesday, June 2, 2021. A graveside service will be held at Heppner Masonic Cemetery on June 14 at 1 a.m. A reception will follow at the Gilliam and Bisbee building.

Marion was born on January 31, 1933, to Cornett and Florence (French) Green in Heppner, Oregon, where he was raised and graduated from high school in 1951. He lettered in football, basketball, and track, and enjoyed hunting and fishing in the Blue Mountains. After turning down an appointment at the Naval Academy in Annapolis, he attended one year of college at Oregon State University. He then returned to Heppner and married Gwyneth Cox, with whom they had three boys. They later divorced and he married Marlys (Phelps) Phegley in 1974. The couple lived in Reedsport until 1984 when they permanently moved to Pendleton. Marlys preceded him in death in 2014.

After briefly selling life insurance and working for Caterpillar after college, Marion became a loan officer with the Bank of Eastern Oregon in both Ione and Heppner, where he worked for many years before joining the Oregon Bank in Reedsport as a vice president in 1971.

During his years in Reedsport, he combined his banking career with commercial fishing for salmon, timber harvest, and running a Christmas farm. Marion eventually transferred to the Oregon Bank branch in Pendleton before buying Mack-Keating Jewelers in 1988, a business he ran until his retirement.

He was a member of the Pendleton Chamber of Commerce and a long-time chair for the St. Anthony Hospital board of trustees. Helping shepherd the construction of the new hospital was one of his proudest accomplishments.

Marion and Marlys attended the Peace Lutheran Church and were also members of the Kill Kare Club. They enjoyed attending functions at the Pendleton and Heppner Elks lodges and their annual trip to Hawai'i. Marion also enjoyed fishing in Alaska, growing his own fruit and vegetables, staying at the cabin he built at Penland Lake, and sharing mid-morning coffee with his friends at the Red Lion Motor Inn.

In his final years he lived at Sun Ridge Retirement Community where he enjoyed the social environment and chess matches.

Survivors include his sons Gregory and wife Marcia of Ferndale, Washington, Howard and wife Debbie of Portland, and Joel and his wife Christine of Spokane; grandchildren Brandon Green and Lily Green; stepdaughters Beverly Crum of Ione, Wendy Carlson and her husband Ted of Lake Oswego, Becky Phegley of Beaverton, and Marilyn Baertlein and her husband Bill of Tillamook; and brothers Stephen Green of Pendleton and James Green of Canby, Oregon. He was preceded in death by his sister, Mary Ruth Troyer.

Memorial contributions may be made to the St. Anthony Hospital Hospice Program, 2801 St. Anthony Way, Pendleton, OR 97801.
