

MCSO announces new leaders for 21-22 school year

The Morrow County School District has hired several new administrators for the 21-22 school year.

According to Erin Stocker, Executive Director of Human Resources, "I continue to be amazed by the leadership and skillset within our district. These new administrators bring with them proven track records of being student-first educators, as well as the willingness to take on new challenges. I look forward to the upcoming school year for Morrow County School District with the addition of these leaders to our team."

New vice principal at Sam Boardman Elementary

Jami Carbray is the new vice principal at Sam Boardman Elementary School. Carbray has an extensive background in education which spans over 25 years. Her teaching background includes 20 years in primary grades as a classroom teacher and as a literacy intervention specialist for five years. A Boise State University graduate, Carbray has two master's degrees, one with an emphasis in math and reading from Walden University and an education specialist degree in building leadership and administration from Northwest Nazarene University. She recently relocated from Nampa, Idaho to Boardman and said she is really excited to join the MCSO team. "I am eager to learn all about Morrow County School District and the community of Boardman." Carbray said.

New vice principal at Riverside Jr/Sr High School

The new vice principal at Riverside is Steve Sheller. He has 20 years of teaching experience in math, science and photography, and previously worked in the Hermiston School District and Morrow County School District as a teacher. Sheller received his master's in educational administration from Grand Canyon University. For the last three years, he was the principal at Stanfield Secondary School. During that time, Sheller and staff focused on improving graduation rates and implementing highly effective teaching strategies. As a result, Stanfield's graduation rate averaged over 94 percent, which was an improvement of more than 10 percent. Sheller said, "I am excited to work with the students, administrative team and staff at Riverside Jr. /Sr. High School. Go Pirates."

New special education coordinator and vice principal at Morrow Education Center

Marissa Turner, a long time MCSO special education teacher, will be stepping into the role of special education coordinator and vice principal at the Morrow Education Center. Turner has 10 years of teaching experience at MCSO, all in special education and encompassing kindergarten through 12th grade, including life skills and alternative school. In addition to her K-12 SPED experience, she has a strong background in behavior protocols and working with classroom staff to develop plans to support student success. Turner recently received her administrative degree from Lewis and Clark College. A Morrow County native, Turner said, "I am excited to continue the commitment to serve all our district's communities and work with staff on the continued improvement of our SPED and behavior programs."

All of the new administrators began their contracts on July 1, 2021.

3 BIG MYTHS WINDOW REPLACEMENT

When it comes to window replacement, there are too many myths floating around and not nearly enough facts.

Myth #1: "Vinyl windows are the best solution."
Fibrex® composite material is two times stronger than vinyl and makes for stunningly beautiful windows with a durable finish that, unlike vinyl, won't peel, crack or fade? 2x STRONGER THAN VINYL

Myth #2: "Window replacement is difficult."
It depends on who you call. Renewal by Andersen is the full service window replacement division of 116-year-old Andersen Corporation, the most trusted family of window brands in America.

Myth #3: "All warranties are the same."
As both the manufacturer and installer of your windows, Renewal by Andersen gives you both product and labor coverage! As a homeowner, you get absolute peace of mind.
