

Cross country prepares for districts

By Hannah Finch

Last Thursday, October 14, Mustang cross country raced in Vernonia, which is about an hour's drive past Portland. The Mustangs faced many schools that they hadn't seen before and had to tackle a course that they were unfamiliar with. Though it was a long day for our runners, they didn't let that show through in their performance.

Lily Nichols was the first girl to cross the finish line at 11:29.6. Riley Archer trailed right behind her and placed second at 11:56.1. The girls didn't stop here, though. Right behind them was Brooklyn Hendricks, who ran a time of 12:04.5 and placed fourth. After that was Hailey McDaniel, who placed ninth and ran 13 minutes flat. Sixth grader Lizzie Ginn (11th place) and Jules Archer (12th place) finished side by side less than a minute later. The middle school girls finished first overall as a team with a score of 20.

For the varsity boys, four out of the six runners placed in the top 20. Trevor Nichols led the pack, placing second with a time of 16:13.4. Overall, it was a close call between Heppner, Knappa and Vernonia, with only five points separating the three schools. In the end, the Heppner boys won with a total score of 69.

Although they were missing their top runner, the varsity girls still showed up to compete. Hannah Finch placed eighth with a time of 22:20.8. Kylie Boor (15th) and Irelynn Kollman (16th) battled towards the end of their race and finished one after the other, soon followed by Harley Anderson.

This week brings crunch time for Heppner's runners. On Thursday, October 21, the high school team will be travelling to John Day to race. The middle schoolers will be going to the Eastern Oregon Championships meet the next day, Friday, October 22. Eastern Oregon is made up of some of the best districts, so there will be some competition. In turn, the middle school girls are looking as strong as ever and are currently ranked 10th among schools 1A-6A. The girls are first in the district and ranked fourth among schools in eastern Oregon. For the middle school boys, Cooper Wight is currently ranked second in the district individually.

High school districts will be held in John Day next week on Friday, October 29. The varsity girls will race at 4:30 p.m. and the varsity boys will race at 5 p.m. There, the Mustangs will compete for a spot at state.
