

Ione/Arlington volleyball competes at district

Ione's Haylie Peterson hits the ball over the net during the district tournament in Echo. The Ione/Arlington volleyball team took third place in the district tournament held in Echo on Saturday, October 23. They lost their first match against Echo 3-0 and won the second 3-1 against Klickwood, earning their third place spot. The team will play their first playoff game Wednesday, hoping to win two games and go to the state tournament. The Ione/Arlington football team traveled to Cove and brought home the win on Friday, October 22. The team will begin the post season with a playoff game this week at North Powder.

Taylor Rollins moves the ball down the field while Carson Eynetich looks on.
