Search for Christ in Christmas scavenger hunt scheduled

A scavenger hunt, hosted by Pioneer Memorial Hospice, to "Search for Christ in Christmas" is scheduled for Sunday, December 12. Area churches will hold Christmas activities, followed by refreshments at Murray's Garden.

No nativity is complete without the wise men traveling from afar to find the Christ Child. Local churches are inviting community members to set off on their own scavenger hunt in search of the true meaning of Christmas. On Sunday, December 12, between 5 and 7 p.m., community members (families, friends and co-workers) can visit each church for a 10-minute activity focusing on Christ and his birth.

Acting out the Christmas story, making crafts and singing carols will all be activities that families can join in when they visit participating churches. Finding the true meaning of Christmas will include favorites such as a live nativity, an angel photo shoot and making Christmas tree ornaments. Each activity will last only 10 minutes, so there will be plenty of opportunity to visit each church.

"We will be having a live nativity and music," said Laurie Wood of St. Patrick Catholic Church. "And we will have 'ready to go kits' for families to bake Jesus a cake on his birthday—Christmas. After all, Jesus is the Reason for the Season."

Ashton Byers from the Christian Church remarks, "The Christmas season brings lots of fun and exciting activities. All this fun can sometimes lead us to forget the true reason for the season. I am so excited to take time this year as a community to remember the best gift ever given in history: Immanuel means God is with us."

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints will be using Sage Landing to display beautiful crèches owned by local members of the congregation and a silent story of the birth of the Christ Child. "There are so many beautiful displays that our members own. This is a wonderful way to share them," says Darcie Chick.

Following these activities, everyone is invited to meet at Murray's Garden on Main Street at 7 p.m. for refreshments and wise words from the Magi, Jerry Conklin, Pioneer Memorial Hospice Chaplain. Our Wise Man will be accompanied by his trusty camel, Mukita.

Make your own map and set off on your own hunt for the true meaning of Christmas. Churches that are participating in the Wise Man Scavenger Hunt are Hopeful Saints Ministry, 460 North Gale Street; Heppner Christian Church, 293 N Gale; Heppner Seventh-Day Adventist, 560 N Minor St.; Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, Sage side entrance, Willow St. and St Patrick Catholic Church, 525 Gale St.
