CARD OF THANKS

This thank you goes out to a very nice couple who helped me get word out that I was broke down on the Sunday after Christmas. I was on my way back to Heppner when I had car trouble the other side of Hardman. I understand our day and time that we live in now, but I learned something, don't neglect to think that you may be of help to someone else. I had 5 cars go by me while my flashers were on, and the 6th car stopped to see if I needed help. I said I was broke down and unable to use my cell phone, but my brother would come looking for me as he knew when I left Prairie City. They were not comfortable leaving me there, unsure I had help coming or how long that might be. They drove me to the other side of Hardman, where they have had service before, and let me plug my phone into their outlet in the car. I was able to get a hold of my brother and tell him I was broke down and where. They offered to take me into Heppner, but I knew my brother was on his way, so they drove me back to my car so that I could wait for him there. Then, this very nice couple offered to stay with me until he came and wanted to be sure I could stay warm. I was good with the fact that it would not be long and told them I would be ok and to go ahead and go home. The snowplow went by me as I waited, which I thought nothing about as they were out to do their job. Within about 10 minutes the snowplow came back by which I did think was odd, then a few minutes later was back and stopping in front of me. The nice gentleman came to my door to see if I needed help. He said he didn't realize until he got right upon my car, when he first went by, that there was someone in the vehicle. He explained that he needed to find a place where he could safely turn around to come back. I told him I had help coming and he was so kind to ask if I was keeping warm enough. He went on to do his job and said if I was still there when he came back he would check on me. My brother and nephew came shortly after with a car trailer, loaded up my car and we were headed back to Heppner in a fraction of the time I spent on the side of the road. They also deserve a big thanks even though they are family and may be obligated. My brother has always had my back, my nephew who lives in Texas, home for the holidays. So, I get home to settle in and turn on the TV and the Dallas Cowboys are playing Football, in the second quarter, my nephews favorite team.

Thank You
Donita Griffith

HELP WANTED
