CARD OF THANKS

I have learned that the old adage "it takes a village to raise a child" also holds true for producing and directing a play. A huge and heartfelt thank you to so many is an absolute necessity. To Dale Bates for the amazing sound set-up and lights. You amplified Father Condon's beautiful words in a way our little voices couldn't have. To Dennis Weizer for the PERFECT slide show and for being Dale's sidekick. To Mary Haguewood for the extensive work she did on the sets and for the curtain steaming. To Brian Kollman for his transporting of sets from Heppner to Ione, back to Heppner, to the Gilliam and Bisbee Building, and finally back to the parish Hall. To the cast: Madelyn Nichols, Brian Kollman, Jennifer Ashbeck, Irelyn Kollman, Janet Greenup, Beth Dickenson, Mary Ann

Elguezabal, Kay Proctor, Rita VanSchoiack, Monika Elguezabal, Joe Lindsay, Bill Kuhn and Dan VanSchoiack for their willingness to participate in the actual performance and for help with transporting set items. To Joe Lindsay and family and Dr. Luke Murray for the amazing music. To Beth Dickenson and her students, Greg and Janet Greenup, Kay Proctor, Mary Haguewood, and others who helped with the backdrop. To Lois Connor for hours spent on constructing costumes and for being our curtain lady. To Babette Wahl for last minute help with a costume need. To Larissa Gray and Sheryll Bates for printing off the programs. To St. Williams and St. Patrick's Altar Societies for the wonderful refreshments. To Sheryll Bates for stepping in at the last minute to take care of the House Lights. To Pat Dougherty for loaning us her beautiful house plants. To Cynthia Wenberg for making sure we had our flowers. To our audience for presenting to enjoy the hard work done by so many. To my family for putting up with me for the past several weeks. I know that a few audience members said I was a bit long winded, for that I apologize but I had a lot to say. Last, but not least, thank you to Father Gerald Condon for his beautiful and inspirational words on the Life of Saint Therese of Lisieux. I am sure there are those that participated that I have forgotten but please know how much you are appreciated. Blessings,

Sheridan Tarnasky
