Mustangs back at it after spring break

By Blake Carter

The Mustang spring sport teams are back in full swing after the weeklong break. Some teams continued to compete through the break while others took the time off. However, all four teams battled in a variety of competitions this past week.

The Mustang baseball team played three contests this past week and looked to rebound from their tough double header loss to Baker. Heppner traveled to Pilot Rock on Tuesday where they rolled to a 15-3 victory. Heppner's bats were hot on Tuesday as Heppner hit two triples in the game. Tucker Ashbeck and Toby Nation combined to allow just three runs on the day.

Saturday, they hosted Union for a double header where Heppner shut out the Bobcats in both games as they cruised to two, 10-0 run rule wins. Heppner stayed electric with their bats as they batted around multiple times. Tucker Ashbeck threw a complete game shutout in game one while Toby Nation did the same in game two. Heppner moves to a 4-2 record and a 3-0 league record. Heppner will face Grant Union on Tuesday, April 5 in a pivotal league matchup early in the season. Heppner will also take on Sherman County on Saturday for two league games.

The Lady Mustang softball team also played three games, Tuesday in Irrigon, and Friday at home for a double header with Weston-McEwen. The Lady 'Stangs grabbed their first win of the season as they traveled to Irrigon where they had a convincing 23-9 win. Heppner turned around for two tough games with Weston-McEwen where they lost both games. The Lady 'Stangs will look forward to two tough double headers this week on Tuesday and Friday. Friday afternoon will be a tough matchup with the highly ranked Grant Union Prospectors.
