CARD OF THANKS

The family of Warren Plocharsky would like to express our deepest appreciation to the many people who offered their condolences with flowers, cards, phone calls, meals, and the many other acts of kindness following Warren's passing. A special thank you to the EMTs, Molly Rea for sitting with me until family arrived, Pat and Trisha Sweeney for their guidance in planning the service, and the members of Hopeful Saints for preparing and hosting a wonderful reception following the service. It is such a blessing to live in a community that takes care of each other.
