Phone and Internet Discounts Available to CenturyLink Customers

The Oregon Public Utility Commission designated CenturyLink as an Eligible Telecommunications Carrier within its service area for universal service purposes. CenturyLink's basic local service rates for residential voice lines are $25.48 – 27.00 per month and business services are $37.00-$39.00 per month. Specific rates will be provided upon request.

CenturyLink participates in the Lifeline program, which makes residential telephone or qualifying broadband service more affordable to eligible low-income individuals and families. Eligible customers may qualify for Lifeline discounts of $5.25/month for voice or bundled voice service or $9.25/month for qualifying broadband or broadband bundles. Residents who live on federally recognized Tribal Lands may qualify for additional Tribal benefits if they participate in certain additional federal eligibility programs. The Lifeline discount is available for only one telephone or qualifying broadband service per household, which can be either a wireline or wireless service. Broadband speeds must be at least 25 Mbps download and 3 Mbps upload to qualify.

CenturyLink also participates in the Affordable Connectivity Program (ACP), which provides eligible households with a discount on broadband service. The ACP provides a discount of up to $30 per month toward broadband service for eligible households and up to $75 per month for households on qualifying Tribal lands.

For both programs, a household is defined as any individual or group of individuals who live together at the same address and share income and expenses. Services are not transferable, and only eligible consumers may enroll in these programs. Consumers who willfully make false statements to obtain these discounts can be punished by fine or imprisonment and can be barred from these programs.

If you live in a CenturyLink service area, visit https://www.centurylink.com/aboutus/community/community-development/lifeline.html for additional information about applying for these programs or call 1-800-201-4099 with questions.

This headline from the January 4, 1923 Heppner Gazette-Times, "Roy Campbell, Lexington, Receives Injuries," shows that themes of conversations and articles haven't changed much in the past 100 years; injuries and road conditions are still hot topics, even if the modes of transportation have changed.

The article reports: "Roy Campbell, who farms the old home place on Social Ridge, was quite seriously injured last Thursday afternoon in a mix-up with his plow team. His ankle was dislocated and one bone fractured and Mr. Campbell was otherwise bruised up. His injuries will lay him up for some time."

"B. H. Peck was in town from his Rhea creek farm on Tuesday. While the roads have not settled real good yet, they are fast getting into shape and Mr. Peck experienced no difficulty in getting to town with team and hack."

Roy Campbell, Lexington, Receives Injuries. Roy Campbell, who farms the old home place on Social Ridge, was quite seriously injured last Thursday afternoon in a mix-up with his plow team. His ankle was dislocated and one bone fractured and Mr. Campbell was otherwise bruised up. His injuries will lay him up for some time.

All Topsy-Turvy. Man's life is full of trouble and temptation. He comes into the world without his consent and goes out of it against his will. His journey through life is full of strange and contradictory happenings. When he is little the big girls kiss him, and when he is big the little girls kiss him. When he is little he wants candy but can't have it, and when he is a man he can get it but doesn't want it. When he is a boy he wishes he were a man, and when he is a man he wishes he were a boy again. If he raises a large family he is a chump, if he raises a check he is a thief. If he is a poor man he is a bad manager, and if he is rich he is dishonest. If he puts forth an effort to collect what is justly due him he is a sausage and ought to get beat. If he is in politics it is for graft, and if out of politics, you can't place him and he is no good to his country. If he gives to charity it is for show, and if he does not, he is a stingy old cuss. If he dies young there was a great future before him, and if he lives to an old age he has missed his calling. If he is affectionate he is a softy, if he isn't he's a cold-blooded proposition. So, in order to be entirely healthy and avoid all criticism he must eat nothing, drink nothing, smoke nothing, and if he wants better printing at right prices he must get it at The Gazette-Times.
