The Heppner Chamber of Commerce has a new downtown map available. This visual community directory allows visitors to seek services, and local businesses to showcase their products. The downtown map can be downloaded from the chamber of commerce website, <https://heppnerchamber.com/explore-heppner>, or printed copies are available at the chamber office. More locations will soon have printed copies. -Map courtesy of the chamber of commerce

Coffee Hour and Ceili return to St. Pats Heppner

The Irish Coffee Hour and Ceili will be back again this year at the Wee Bit O' Ireland Celebration in Heppner March 18. Both events will be held upstairs at the Elk's Lodge, the coffee hour from 10-11:30 a.m. and the Ceili from 2-4 p.m.

Great programs have been planned to fill the day with music and local talent, and the group Whiskey for Breakfast will fill listening ears and hearts with lots of Irish songs—and, of course, they will want the audience to join in. Onlookers and listeners also shouldn't be surprised if Heppner's leprechauns make an appearance and dance to some of the music during their visit.

Also at the coffee hour, the audience will hear some stories about this year's grand marshals, past "key organizers" of the Heppner St. Patrick's celebration, with a special mention of founder Jim Farley. It can only be hoped that Joe Lindsay will also be there with a song to share.

The Irish Brogue Contest will give the audience a chance to tell the best "Blarney" stories for a chance to win some gold coins, so everyone should be thinking of something appropriate to share.

The Ceili will run from 2-4 p.m. with Alan Feves and the rest of the Whiskey for Breakfast group. Joe Lindsay will join to wrap up the afternoon. The weekend's main entertainment, Tiller's Folly, will be stopping in around 3 p.m. to sing a few of their songs to get everyone warmed up for their concert, planned for 7:30 p.m. in the Gilliam and Bisbee building.

The weekend is sure to make everyone want to clap their hands, stomp their feet, have a few laughs and even dance as they enjoy some great Irish music and entertainment.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY

St. Patrick's Day is here, you see.
We'll pick some shamrocks,
one, two, three.
We'll count the leaves and look
them over,
And maybe find a four-leafed clover.

I'll sew green buttons on my vest.
Green for St. Patrick is the best.
I'll wear a green hat, very high,
And dance a jig - at least I'll try!

Happy St. Patrick's Day from all of us at the Heppner Gazette-Times and Sykes Bros. Printing
